

Larry A. Patterson

September 22, 1947 - July 27, 2011

LARRY A. PATTERSON, son of the late Arnold and Althea, was born on September 22, 1947 in Baltimore, Maryland. Larry was known as “ Fat Larry” in most places he traveled.

He was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System. At the age of twenty he was employed at the United States Coast Guard Yard in Curtis Bay, Maryland, until his retirement in July of 1994.

Larry's passion was singing, listening to music and watching old movies on cable television.

He was preceded in death by his daughter, Athlea Patterson.

He leaves to mourn: his wife of thirty-four years, Gilda; daughter, Adrienne Patterson; son Rev Terrance Thompson; four grandchildren, Danielle Scott, Nadyiah Patterson, Cierra Adams and Maliki Wiggins; four sisters, Novella Brown, Jean Washington, Patricia Brooks and Jeanette Gough; six brothers-in-law, Preston Brown, Fred Washington, Father Kizito Thompson, Ralph Lane, Michael Brooks and Glen Damon; two sisters-in-law, Louise Brown and Delorse Daymon; a lifetime friend, Elliott Barnes; nieces, nephews, and a host of other relatives and friends. He was especially fond of his niece, Phyllis Brewer.

I had the pleasure of being Larry's friend for about the last 10 years. I always enjoyed his sweet disposition and gratitude for life itself. He will always hold a place in my heart, as will his lovely wife Gilda. I will hold you in my heart Gilda while you walk through this time of loss and change in your life; we know Larry is with his maker now. My love to you and yours. Ellen
