

Larry D. Player

October 13, 1965 - April 14, 2021

LARRY DEAN PLAYER was the youngest child born to his proud parents, Marie D. and Thomas Player, on October 13th, 1965 at Johns Hopkins Hospital.

At an early age, Larry accepted Christ into his life as Personal Savior. He joined the Southern Baptist Church here in Baltimore, Maryland and was baptized by the late Rev. Dr. Nathaniel Higgs, Sr.

As an active member, he loved singing and sang on the former Higgs Specials which was a young male chorus named after his pastor.

Larry was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System. He graduated from Patterson High School in June, 1983. He then went on to become gainfully employed with several companies throughout his lifetime. In his later years, he went to school and obtained his CDL License. Larry enjoyed playing sports on neighborhood pick-up teams while growing up in East Baltimore. He was well loved and known for his very affectionate SMILE which captivated everyone whom he came into contact. He loved to dance with his very funny moves and entertain everyone with his very funny sayings and jokes which would have you cracking up laughing. He was the LIFE of every party, family reunion and special event which he attended.

He LOVED his family; especially his children and grandchildren. Spending quality time with them was always an enjoyable experience.

He was preceded in death by his loving and devoted parents, Thomas and Marie D. Player; his only sister, Thomasina Regina Player; his oldest brother, Christopher Davis his granddaughter Khloe Player and grandson Kylek Joseph. “ My heart breaks just thinking about you. It's hard for me to believe this one. I wish I was there I wish I could have helped I wish I knew. I never imagine in a million years that I would be grieving for you.. I still can not accept this. I'll always remember how much fun we had. How you looked out for me. How you showed me a good time in bars laughing dancing getting tore up. Making sure I got home safe. How to put rice in the pigfeet juice. 🤔 How u sang a song with those lips. The jokes will never end. How much love you have for anyone who ever crossed your path. You never gave up on anything. Larry you are forever in my heart. And I no your babies and family love you but I love you just the same. You are forever and more. Rest in Paradise sweetheart. I'll always be heartbroken over this one. Love you babe
