

Larry Powe

March 25, 1951 - August 26, 2016

LARRY POWE, son of the late Nora Hinson and Doc Bruce Powe was born on March 25, 1951 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life on August 26, 2016 after a lengthy illness.

He received his education in the Baltimore City Public School System and graduated from Northwestern Senior High School in 1970.

Larry was employed at numerous jobs of which his last employer was with University of Maryland Medical System. He remained employed there for a period of twenty-seven years until he retired in June of 2016.

Larry was a brother, uncle and dear person to everyone who knew him. Uncle Larry, as we so fondly called him, loved to play pool, listen to his favorite group The Temptations and entertain when he was not working. He was very fond of cooking. Larry dearly missed his brothers that preceded him in death and was known as the jokester of the family. He often told tales of his job. You would often catch him sitting on the bench after work by the Great Cookie stand relaxing before leaving for home. At work Larry was known as the ER's finest. He will be missed by all.

He is preceded in death by four brothers, Ernest Powell, Wilbert Powe, Henry Spencer and Frederick Lee Spencer; two sisters Ruth Powell and Darlene Johnson.

He leaves to cherish his memory: three brothers, Thomas Franklin Spencer, Abdul Rahim Ghani-El and Raymond Johnson; two sisters,

Alcora Phillips and Linda Spencer; two sisters-in-law, Dorethea Powe and Dorothy Powe; seven nieces, eleven nephews and a host of greatnieces and -nephews.
