“ *To the family
Upon every remembrance I will pray for you.*

Years ago I was invited to Annie's cookout, I accepted but found myself without a way home. Without hesitation, Larry gave me that much needed ride. I was very grateful. Throughout the years we had the opportunity to be in each others company and I have never forgotten his initial act of kindness. I thank God for his life and pray that you will be comforted with your own special memories.
