

Larry T. Crapper

December 8, 1950 - February 27, 2023

LARRY TYRONE CRAPPER, SR., son of the late Russell Crapper Sr., and the late Dorothy Crapper, was born on December 8, 1950 in Baltimore, Maryland. Larry was called home on February 27, 2023.

He received his education in the Baltimore City Public School System. He worked most of his life in Baltimore as a Arabber until retiring several years ago after battling throat cancer. Throughout his life, he attended St. Philips Lutheran Church and Memorial Baptist Church. Although he spent much of his time to himself, he still enjoyed hanging out with friends. He was a caring and protective family man. Larry enjoyed listening to music, especially his favorite artist, Stevie Wonder. He had a fondness for horses and is remembered as a jokestar during his youth. As a child, Larry was affectionately called "Skip" by his Great Aunt Bessie Baylor.

He leaves to cherish his memory his sisters, Marion Davis (Crapper), LeGrant Branch (Crapper and Darlene Crapper. He was preceded in death by his brother Russell Crapper Jr. and sister Josifa Namne (Crapper). He is survived by his three children, Larry Crapper., Mary Hall and Darryl Crapper, four grandchildren, Todd, Tavon, Jakerra and Trinity, five grandchildren, Javon, Tavon Jr., Tyre, Karon and Tristan, a large extended family that includes the late Doris Fitzgerald, his "adopted" mother, adopted brothers, Steve, Keith and Gary Fitzgerald, uncles, William & Sylvester Toles, aunts, Alice and Pebbles Toles, his "right hand", Thomas Harvey and a host of nieces, nephews and other family & friends.
