

Larry Augustus Washington

March 12, 1938 - March 9, 2019

Larry Augustus Washington was born on March 12, 1938 to the union of Lizzie H. and John R. Washington, Sr. Larry was a graduate of Virginia State College. In 1987, he retired as a Detective from the 79th Precinct of the New York City Police Department. After coming out of retirement, he returned to work at Health Insurance Plan (HIP) (now known as Emblem Health) where he worked as the Director of Central Management. After many years of service, he retired again to devote more time to his family and hobbies.

He was an avid fisherman, hunter, and a member of the Community Hunting Club of King William. Although he resided in Orlando, Florida, he would travel back to Virginia often and made sure he was there for hunting season. On many occasions he ventured to Costa Rica with his buddies.

Larry was a generous person and had the most caring heart. He was a loving father, papa, brother, uncle, and friend. In his own words, "he lived a good life." Larry departed this life on March 9, 2019. He was preceded in death by his parents; Lizzie H. and John Washington, Sr., brother, Eugene Washington, Sr. He leaves to cherish his loving memory, two daughters, Keisha Moore (Kenneth) and Nefertiti Harris (Donaldo Sr.); five grandchildren, Jaidin and Bradsin Moore and Elora, Neriah, and Donaldo Harris, Jr.; siblings, Sheila Washington (Stanley) and John Washington, Jr.; aunts, Inell Martin and Julia Coleman, sister-in-law, Frances R. Washington; special friends, Enoch

Jenkins and W. George Allen, and a host of nieces, nephews and other relatives.
