

Lasharn Jammie McDaniels

March 22, 1976 - November 14, 2022

Today we are here to celebrate the life of LASHARN JAMMIE McDANIELS. She was born on March 22, 1976 in Baltimore, Maryland at Sinai Hospital, to Barbara Hightower and the late Melvin Lee. She departed this life on November 14, 2022 in Los Angeles, California.

Lasharn attended Lake Clifton/Eastern High School and studied Health-Care/Nursing at UCLA.

She married Leon Smith in Baltimore, MD. Lasharn was employed by Genesis Healthcare and then opened up her own private duty services and was genuinely loved by her patients.

Lasharn was known as “Pebbles” and later known as “Baltimore” by her California family. Lasharn enjoyed her family, friends, reading books and music. Her favorite artists were Tupac Shakur and DMX. She most importantly enjoyed the plants of the earth (lol). Lasharn always dreamed of moving to California and she achieved that goal. Lasharn made a tremendous amount of friends in Baltimore, L.A. and everywhere she went. Lasharn was known for her vibrant and fierce personality and will be forever missed.

She was preceded by her husband, Leon Smith and her two dogs. She leaves to mourn her mother, Barbara Hightower; two sisters, Laverne Hightower and

Ileisia Walker; one brother, Denzel Hightower; eight nieces and nephews, Shakera Sparrow, Jasmine Walker, Christopher Walker, Nicholas Walker, Malaysia Howell, Malania Howell, Amora Hightower, Alizah Hightower, and a great-niece Ashuri Jasmine Douglas
