“ Please accept my deepest sympathy for I too know the pain of losing someone you love. Death is something that we will never get use to because it is not natural. In fact, God's Word refers to death as 'the last enemy.' May you find comfort in knowing that our loving Heavenly Father Jehovah promises us that very soon He will by means of His son Christ Jesus, bring our 'enemy' to nothing. (1 Corinthians 15:26) What a wonderful day that will be!##imported-begin##Kevin Jackson##imported-end##

“ To the Alston Family, I was introduced to LaSharon by her cousin, Marvin. She was really excited about getting back to selling Avon. She was indeed a very pleasant young lady whom I had the pleasure of knowing. I extend my condolences to Ms. Mae and the family for your sudden loss. Just always know that although she's in God's hands, I will miss her presence and her beautiful smile! Shari A. Williams, Avon Representative District #2608##imported-begin##Shari A. “ I would like to express my sincere condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. Death is never easy to cope with especially when it overtakes someone so young. May you find solace in the "God of all comfort" (2Cor1:3-4) and the promise that those who have fallen asleep in death will live again on a paradise earth (John5:28-29; Psalm37:11,29).##imported-begin##C. “ Please accept my deepest condolences for the loss of your dear one. I know how difficult it is to lose a loved one, because I too have lost many loved ones in death, and I can truly sympathize with your pain. Death is such a terrible enemy which God promises to do away with forever. At 1st Cor 15:26 he promises: "As the last enemy, death will be brought to nothing." He never forgets those who have died no matter how long ago they passed away. He will even bring back to life those who died in the vast oceans. Rev 20:13 promises: "And the sea gave up those dead in it, and death and Hades gave up those death in them. So nothing is impossible for the loving and powerful God Jehovah who tenderly keeps us all in his vast memory. That is why John 5:28,29 tells us that all who are in the memorial tombs will one day hear the voice of his son, Jesus, and they will come back to life. May you be comfort at the thought of one day seeing your beloved LaSharon again. Meanwhile, please take in the wonderful knowledge of the only true God, Jehovah, and his son, because John 17:3 lets us know that taking in bible knowledge is the key to everlasting life. May you find much comfort and strength in the hope of the resurrection. Acts 24:15###imported-begin###R Johnson###imported-end###
