“ My family and I are sorry for ur lost. LaShiya was a very good and sweet person i would never thought in a million years she would depart so soon from us. She was a very loving and sweet person she enjoyed playing basketball and always had a smile on her face, Lashiya u are truly missed all i keep thinking about is when we went to recess and gym me and you playing basketball and being on the same team all the time. Now u gone but i know u in a better place no more pain or suffering and i know u have that basketball in ur hands because u were so nice with it. I LOVE YOU Shiya u will always be in my heart and i see u when i get there with the basketball in my hands.

*Love Always,

“ I know your birthday was yesterday. So Happy birthday Lashiya. i just found out today that u passed. Really i just found out yesterday. I cant sleep so im still up. im not sure what to say but that I LOVE YOU WITH ALL MY HEART AND SOUL. we shared something no one could every take away, or compare. I beleive i must of talked to u not too long before u went home to our lord. And u told me u was sick, i told u to try your best to call me and u never did....and i see why now. I lost contact, and was never told u went home until now. I miss u, LOVE U FOREVER, may u rest in peace, untill i see u again:). all my prayers go out to your family. I know how much you love them and talked about them to me. i know how much u love your lil sister, and i pray she is ok and being strong. If anyone know any info on her can u please bring me closure and contact me please? u will be blessed cause the lord know how i feel right now.##imported-begin##Dominique Brooks##imported-end##

“ It has been some time since my sister passed and not a day goes by that i do not miss her. Today, by chance, i looked up this site and saw all of the wonderful things that her friends, family and strangers have left and want to simply express my thanks for your sympathy. I only want to leave you all with one last thought and that is to cherish everyday....love more and embrace those who you love when you can while you can.##imported-begin##Samuel Porter##imported-end##

“ They say that time has a way of healing all pain and sorrow, I hope the time that has passed is helping you to begin the healing process, when the enemy death takes over it puts an end to the love you shared, but the memories live on, may the beautiful memories you shared with Lashiya Porter help to get you through this most difficult time. 2Corinthians 1:2-4 assures us that the God of tender mercy and comfort is there to assist us at anytime, call on him he will listen to you, my deepest sympathy is with all of you##imported-begin##Josephine##imported-end##

“ To the family & friends of LaShiya, I would like to offer my deepest sympathy for the huge loss of your daughter, sister, granddaughter, cousin and friend. No doubt that this "sting" that death deals is like no other pain you can imagine. Please know that our Heavenly Father knows your pain, for He too lost a child. He wants us to be comforted during times such as these and His holy word is full of comforting scriptures. One in particular that comes to mind is at Isaiah 26:19. There it says, "Your dead ones will live. A corpse of mine-they will rise up. Awake and cry out joyfully, you residents in the dust!.... Having lost a daughter myself, this scripture is near to my heart and is comforting. I pray that it too brings you comfort now and in the days ahead. Your family continues to be in my prayers.##imported-begin##Denise Dukes##imported-end##

“ My family and I offer our deepest sympathy to LaShiya's family and friends. As you reflect on her life and draw comfort from your precious memories, remember the One who is the source of life has given us a source of comfort during times like these. The hope of the resurrection mentioned at Acts 24:15. We can find comfort in this hope because Hebrews 6:18 tells us it is impossible for God to lie. Let him be your source of comfort.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##
