“ When I first met you and Yolanda we were assigned to the grill during Summerbration at Celebration Church. Free burgers, so our customers were acting up, but you kept that smile and kept it calm. You and Yolanda always had to remind me that we were “at church”. Lol. Y’all accepted me as a big brother, I will always remember the laughs and you giving me the nickname “Trouble”. Sleep in peace my sister, you will never be forgotten...

Ms. Cotman, I will miss you. From our polarizing banter to our private conversations about faith, life, health, finances, and love, the four years we worked together will forever be etched in my memory. You worked hard to achieve your goals and I told you I was proud of you. You remained fearless until the day you transitioned home. God was always at the center of your life, therefore, I find solace in knowing you are with our father wrapped in all of his glory. Rest in Power!

As former business teachers of Charles City High School, Mrs. Deborah Turner and Mrs. Hazel Charity, we have so many beautiful memories of her. She participated in so many activities sponsored by the business classes and the Future Business Leaders of America. To her family: we are thinking of you in the loss of your beautiful loved one. Keeping you in our prayers.

“ The students and staff of Montgomery County Public Schools Alternative Programs have suffered a deep loss with the death of Latisha Cotman. I had the pleasure of working with her for several years and saw firsthand the dedication, caring, and skilled counseling that made Ms. Cotman so effective with our students, Latisha was always cheerful and willing to tackle the most difficult situations involving these kids. She advocated for her students, had high expectations for them, and helped them live up to those expectations. She made a difference.

“ Dearest Latisha - While I didn't have the opportunity to meet you in person, my first and only call to you in 2018 was electrifying and resonated the kind and loving person you truly are. Hearing the news of your sudden passing from my Cousin Genevieve really saddened me. We may not fully fathom the mysterious ways of the almighty God. We are assured however that you are heaven and smiling for finishing your work here on earth. Rest Well daughter of Zion, till we meet again on the celestial shores!!

“ I will miss her infectious smile:) We joined Celebration Church at the same time and continued together into Singles Ministry. Even after we moved into other ministries we continued to stay connected at church. Latisha always had a positive, fun, and welcoming spirit! Even though our hearts break for losing a Saint too soon, I pray that whatever blessings she wasn't able to receive here on earth will be eternally fulfilled in heaven. We love you Sis! Rest in perfect peace until we meet again in Glory!

“ Ms. Cotman was a beautiful woman and soul who loved the young people she served, and a special love for her colleagues. I have so much respect for Ms. Cotman, as she could work with the most troubled young soul and make a difference. She kept it real and never backed down on what she believed. She was a woman of great faith and loved God. God has called her home and I will certainly miss her smile and positive energy. Ira Thomas

“ My best friend and the sister that would keep me out of jail, the first person I call when I was happy, sad, or mad.... you were brave enough to carpool with me during rush hour traffic multiple times even though you would say “oh lord you drive crazy”you always stood by my side and always was there whenever my family needed help especially with the children, not many people would spend the day with 4 bad kids and leave saying “ girl your kids aren’t bad, they are hilarious and I love them”..... I will forever be grateful for you.... Ariella is so blessed to have you as a God Mother I miss you much... Love You 🥰 until we meet again Latisha Cotman Aunt TT

“ Aunt Tee Tee,

Knowing that I can no longer pick up my phone & FaceTime you whenever breaks my heart. You were more than an aunt to me & I want you to know that. I admired EVERYTHING you did & still do! My heart is broken knowing that I will no longer see your or talk to you again. God makes absolute no mistakes, but why so soon. Thank you for ALWAYS showering me with unconditional love, caring for me & correcting me whenever I was wrong. I'm truly going to miss everything about you Aunt Tee Tee but I will not forget the things you taught me. I love you ❤️❤️❤️

“ TeeTee was a great friend. I met her the first day of classes at VSU in 1997. She immediately became a part of "The Crew". We are together, played together and maneuvered through the HBCU experience together. I am saddened that time and space separated us, but we said every year, we'd get together soon. It breaks my heart to know we'll never get that chance or our girls trip. She was an absolute angel. Her smile has no equal, her spirit was pure and you felt her love and wonderful presence whenever she was around. TeeTee, I love you and will keep your memory alive forever.
