

Latonya Alston

September 1, 1974 - January 8, 2006

LATONYA ANNA ALSTON was born September 1, 1974 in Baltimore Maryland. She departed her beautiful life suddenly on January 8, 2006. Latonya was baptized at St. Francis Xavier Catholic Church where she also made her First Holy Communion. She received her high school diploma from Lake Clifton Senior High School and later attended Baltimore City Community College where she received her certificate in Early Childhood Education. After receiving her certificate, she was briefly employed at Saint Francis Xavier Headstart as a teacher's aide. From Saint Francis, Latonya began her thirteen-year-long employment with Alliance Incorporated. "Tonie," as we affectionately called her, had many hobbies, but none greater than watching soap operas. She needed absolute silence when they were on television, and don't dare wrinkle any of her Soap Digest Magazines. If she wasn't watching soap operas she was looking for a way to convince her nephews to go with her to see the next wrestling event coming to the arena. While these were merely two of her loves, no one loved her nieces and nephews more than she. Although she never had any children, these were her babies, and she made that clear to everyone. "Tonie" leaves to mourn: her mother and father, Belinda Whyte and Ronald Alston; one brother, Gregory Alston; three sisters, Ronda McCutchen, Latarsha Lewis, and Latea Alston; one grandmother, Anna Francis Alston; four aunts, Betty Dempsey, Buena Wellons, Lela Hughes, Francine Alston-Ball; one uncle, James Alston; two brothers-in-law, Toby Lewis and Carlos McCutchen; sister-in-law, Rhonda Alston; eight nephews, five nieces, cousins, and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ Adam did not exist before he was created a living soul on earth. (Genesis 2:7)Therefore going back to where he came, is his returning to the dust of the ground which would put him back to a non-existing state,(Genesis 3:19)feeling no pain,because at death there is no knowledge of anything.(Ecclesiastes 9:5)This same eventuality befalls us all who fall asleep in death,with the exception of the 144,000 few who have been chosen with the purpose of ruling with Christ from heaven over the remaining mankind on the earth.(Revelations 20:6)Happily these will aid and assist in the ressurection of our beloved deceased ones,(Acts24:15)which will open the opportunity for them to fullfill Jehovah"s original purpose, in which he had not changed in connection with ones living forever on a paradise earth.(Psalms37:29;Matthew 5:5)Continue to pray that the kingdom rule will bring about the best of conditions here on the earth are they are in the heavens.(Matthew 9:9;10)May your tears of sorrow for Latonya become tears of joy concerning the good news of the kingdom held out for her. Love to the family.##imported-begin##A. James##imported-end##

“ To the family and friends: Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. God’s original purpose was not for us to ever die. The thought of death is heartwrenching to us and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to death. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Just imagine our loved one coming back to life in the most beautiful earthly paradise you could ever imagine! Wouldn’t it be wonderful to greet them, tears of joy running down your faces and knowing that you will never lose them in death again. Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at (Rev. 21: 3-5) of a new earth where there will be no more death. These promises have brought comfort to millions. I wish the same for you.###imported-begin##sorry2 hear###imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ My most deepest sympathy to the family for your loss. Although I didn"t personally know Latonya, we"re all a part of the human family, and we all experience the sorrow of death. That is why Jehovah God sent his most precious son Jesus to pay that ransom price so that we might attain everlasting life. Jesus himself said, while he was on earth, "I have come so that they might have life and have it in abundance." May it comfort you to know that one day soon the dead will rise, and we will be reunited with them if we are faithful and obedient to our heavenly father. May those thoughts help to carry you through this most difficult time.##imported-begin##R Johnaon##imported-end##

“ To the Family of Latonya. I would like to express the deepest sympathy to you. Today, most people do not take out the time to show brotherly affection to one's neighbor. Today, I am sending you a spiritual message of love and comfort from God's Word the bible. Acts 24:15 says in part...."I have hoped toward God...., that there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous." Yes, because of Christ's ransom, Almighty God, Jehovah promises us the hope of a resurrection. May this encourage and comfort your family at this time.##imported-begin##Mrs. Howard##imported-end##
