

LaTonya Racquel Johnson

September 8, 1968 - August 22, 2020

LaTonya R. Johnson, daughter of Elizabeth Johnson and Clifford Johnson was born on September 8, 1968 in Westpoint, New York. She was raised in Jacksonville, Florida and later moved to Baltimore, Maryland permanently.

LaTonya was one of 5 children. She received her formal education in Baltimore City Schools; She graduated from Edmondson high school and received her BA in 2008 and MBA in 2012 from Strayer University. She worked for social security for over 25 years with the hopes of retiring soon. Anyone who has ever had the pleasure of meeting LaTonya would say that she was positive, angelic and up-lifting. LaTonya would even tell you herself; with her daily affirmations that she was powerful, determined, bold, brave, kind and lived to inspire and motivate others. She encompassed a respect for all people to which all should aspire.

LaTonya enjoyed being crafty she had many hobbies outside of work. From crochet to jewelry creations, making art, blogs, reading and more. She was the “Empress” of the family; the superglue that held everything together. She took on a love for Maxwell and Trenden that spread joy far and wide. Like any mother, the happiness of her children and grandchildren defined her world. Spending time with her children and grandchildren was one of her favorite things to do. Holidays were always the light of her year, especially Christmas!

LaTonya, the loving mother, Yaya, daughter and friend, departed this life during the morning of August 22, 2020. She was preceded in death by one sister; Dana Johnson.

She leaves behind to mourn, her mother, Elizabeth Johnson; her father, Cliff Johnson; her children, Vincent Pennix, Trindall Brown and Ariel Brown, two grandchildren; Maxwell Pennix and Trenden Brown, two sisters, Marcia Johnson, Felicia Johnson; one brother, Felix Johnson, and a host of other family and friends.
