The Legacy of LaToya Ashley Brown

Back For One Day

If I could come back for just one day
I know exactly what I would say to my family and friends and those who I love
as a message from God who speaks from above
I would say its okay to be sad for awhile
but what I really want most is to see your smile
And for you to go on and live once again
Allowing the Lord to comfort your pain
I know that you loved me with all of your heart
And that none of you wanted for me to depart
I don't quite understand it myself
But I know you'll get by with a little help
Yes, I would say to be sad for a day
And to do what you need to do;
And then lift up your eyes
to the wonder of the sky And know that I loved you too.
Wanda N. Wolfe

Our beloved LaToya A. Brown, 26, was born in Richmond, Virginia on July 7, 1987 to John C. and Brenda Brown. She was called home to be one of God's angels Tuesday, April 1, 2014.

LaToya was affectionately known by her family and friends as Toya. She received her formal education and graduated from New Kent High School in New Kent, Virginia.

LaToya accepted Christ as her Lord and Savior, in 1997 at the age of 10 and was united with Second Liberty Baptist Church. She adored her church family as much as her own.

Toya was an outstanding example of a very giving human being whom always managed to somehow put others beyond herself and her needs. She cared deeply for her friends, family, and all of her loved ones to a great extent. She gave love to everyone around her. Her spirit was warm and caring with an undying love for her son Brandon. Our Toya was a true reflection of God's love!

Toya was employed by the Richmond City Police Department as a Communication Officer I for three years and two years for the Charles City Sheriff Department. She was a hard worker that never complained.

She cherished life and all that it stood for. No matter what she went through, she always put others first. She was a woman that was kind, loving and very caring who loved having fun. Toya's passion was spending quality time with Brandon, her family and baking delicious goodies.

Toya touched so many in so many ways and will be truly missed by all, however don't fret. She will always be with us deep in the recesses of our minds and in our hearts until we too are called home and meet her in the afterlife. We will never allow the light to flicker and continue to carry her torch to eternity.

She leaves to cherish her memory, son, Brandon Foster; devoted father and stepmother John C. and Evangeline "Momz" Brown; loving mother, Brenda Cousin; one sister, Tanika Yarbrough; two brothers, Antonio Bowman and Kobé Cousin; grandmother, Rose Price; one nephew; one devoted uncle June Brown; a host of uncles, aunts, cousins, other relatives and friends.

There's A Special Angel In Heaven

There's a special angel in heaven that is a part of me. It is not where I wanted her to be, but where God wanted her to be. She was here but just a moment like a night time shooting star. And though she is in Heaven she isn't very far. She touched the hearts of many like only an angel can do. I would've held her every minute if the end I only knew. So send this special message to heaven up above. Please take care of my angel
God and send her all my love.

I Love You...Brandon

“ Dear Brown family and friends my condolences for your loss. I was quite grieved when I read this death announcement as LaToya was only a few years younger than me. In this time of tragedy please know that Jehovah the God of all comfort has your family, and LaToya, in mind. His purpose for everyone to live in paradise right here on earth will soon come to fruition. Yes, that also includes those who have fallen asleep in death. John 5:28-29 To learn more please visit www.jw.org or speak with Jehovahs Witnesses in your area.

“ I would like express my deepest sympathy to LaToya's family. The pain, the grief, and the feelings of helplessness can seem unbearable. At such times, we need to go to God's Word for comfort. (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). My prayers are with you all. She will always live in your fond memories of her. God gives us a hope for our dear loved ones that die. Please go to this website to find out more about this hope: www.jw.org.

“ Our family would like to express condolences to The Brown Family. May you find comfort from Jehovah God's Word The Bible where He assures us that our dear loved ones will be resurrected to a beautiful restored paradise earth. He even promises us at 1 Corinthians 15:26 that "the last enemy death will be brought to nothing". Our prayers are with your family.

“ Please accept my condolences. I am deeply sorry for your loss. From God's word the Bible at (Revelation21:4) says "And Jehovah God will wipe out every tear from their eye's and death will be no more neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." Jehovah God will release obedient humans from the grip of death by eliminating the real cause of death: sin inherited from Adam. (Romans 5:12). A life without tears death and pain will soon be a reality. May Jehovah of tender mercies and the God of all comfort be with you. (2Corinthians 1:3-4).

“ To the family of Ms LaToya Ashley Brown. I am sorry to read about the loss of your loved one. The pain is tremendous even with the passage of time. There are scriptures in the Bible to help provide relief of grief and distress. Please read Ps 65:2 that talks about “The Hearer” of prayers, people of all flesh will come.
