“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for your loss. By means of the Bible Almighty God gives us the prospect of our dead loved ones returning to life in a peaceful new world with no more sickness, death, sorrow or pain. (See Revelation 21:3-5, Luke 23:43 and Matthew 5:5) One example of a resurrection was when God's Son Jesus Christ brought back to life a young girl who had died. When Jesus brought her back to life there was extreme joy on the part of family and friends. (see Mark 5:35-36,41-42) May you receive much comfort and strength from this wonderful hope found in the Holy Bible.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ To the family, I offer my deepest condolences for the loss of your loved one. May you find comfort in the scriptures, which promises a wonderful hope to look forward to, that is the opportunity of being reunited with your dear one again in the promised resurrection. Almighty God Jehovah, our loving heavenly father does not desire anyone to suffer the pain of losing a loved one in death, and he made provisions for eternal life by means of the ransom sacrifice of his beloved son Christ Jesus. One day, according to John 5:28,29, all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out. Imagine being able to hold your loved one in your arms again. May you find comfort in this hope, as well as the comfort provided by the father of tender mercies who comforts us through all of our tribulations. 2nd Cor. 1:3,4 One day no more tears and pain, but a life of joy and peace. May your cherished memories bring you consolation.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
