

Latresce D. Bennett

January 27, 1976 - July 9, 2019

This is the story of LATRESCE DECHON BENNETT. LaTresce was a wonderful woman that was loved, is missed, and will always be cherished. LaTresce's story starts on January 27th, 1976 in Baltimore, Maryland and is the child to Raymond and Barbara (Gayles) Bennett.

LaTresce grew up in Baltimore City where she made some very special lifelong friends, loved being around family, enjoyed traveling, glamorous shopping sprees, and was lucky more often than not with the games of change at the casinos.

Her academic credits include: Montebello Elementary School, Winston Middle School, Lake Clifton High School, and the Community College of Baltimore City. She held various jobs as an Administrative Assistant at Johns Hopkins Hospital, Starvin' Marvin Bail Bond, and Sinai Hospital.

Loved ones that cleared the path for LaTresce are: her mother, Barbara (Gayles) Bennett; grandmother, Elsie Morton; grandfather, Wilbur Williams; step-grandfather, William Morton; grandmother, Carrie Bennett; grandfather, Charles Bennett; and aunt, Clementine Bennett.

Loved ones that will miss Latresce as she awaits the return of Jesus are: her father, Raymond Bennett; stepmother, Doretha Felder-Bennett; fiancée, Kevin Singleterry; siblings, Raymond Bennett Jr, Deborah Denis Bennett, Anthony Bonner, Roman Bennett (Netta), Sylvia Rachel Bennett, Tania Felder (Andy), Anthony Felder Jr; godmother, Leona Garrett; god-siblings, LaZette Reeves, LaVette Reeves, Shelly Alston, William Garrett; and a wealth of aunts, uncles, cousins and friends.
