

Laura E. Patterson

April 18, 1941 - December 22, 2002

On April 18, 1941 in Baltimore, MD God blessed the late James E. Patterson and the late Evelyn N. Patterson with a daughter, Laura Elizabeth Patterson. On December 22, 2002 after a lengthy illness, Laura went to be with the Lord. Betsy, as she was affectionately known, was raised in East Baltimore and educated in the Baltimore City Public School System. Laura worked long hard hours at Coyne Industrial Laundry until her illness. She lived a full and rewarding life, never letting any obstacle get in her way. She would always say, "If it is God's will, let it be done; God is keeping me here for a reason and I'm not leaving until it is done!" Laura was the oldest daughter of three brothers and one sister who predeceased her: James E. Patterson, Jr., Calvin Patterson, Donald Patterson and Evelyn Cheeves. Left with loving memories of Laura are her only daughter, Stephanie Green; Ayisha Tatum, who to her was the "sweetest grandchild anyone could have"; Vernetta Taylor, her baby sister whom she always tried to protect; and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ Healing happens slowly over weeks and months and years and even then, there will be days when memories call fresh tears. A song, a scent, or photograph keeps your heart in touch; with all that you so treasured in the one you miss so much. Live with your good memories, as they will add to your comfort, which comes from knowing that your grief is shared and understood.##imported-begin##The March Family and Staff##imported-end##
