

Laura Ann Liller

September 24, 1957 - March 7, 2013

Laura Ann Liller, daughter of the late Marvin Delanor Liller and Barbara Mae (Brittain) Dorrough, was born on September 24, 1957. She departed this life on March 7, 2013 after a lengthy illness.

Laura or “Ms. Laura”, as she was affectionately called in her East Baltimore neighborhood, was a people magnet (especially children). The bag of sweet treats, trinkets, and “do-dads”, that she carried may have had a little influence on the children. Race, creed, or color had no bearings in the heart of Ms. Laura.

Laura was known for offering the homeless a place to stay and a hot meal. Her offers were not limited to humankind. She also took in stray cats and kittens (Zoey, Darkness, Liberty and Heaven, who are extensions of her family today). She was the epitome of the phrase, “See a need, fill a need.” Even, in her final hour here on earth, she knew our hearts were heavy. So, she chose to hold on until she heard the room filled with laughter. It wasn’t until then that she finally took her well-deserved rest.

Laura attended Baltimore County Public Schools. She later found employment in her neighborhood, at The North Inn and Sav-A-Lot Foodstore. She took much pride in these positions and was the “customers’ favorite,” in both establishments. Laura would go above and beyond. At the end of the day, she would say "It was nothing." There wasn't a job that could compare to the job of being a mother to her son and daughter, Ronnie and Zhané. She bragged non-stop, to family and friends of her children's accomplishments. There's no doubt that she will brag up above when Zhanae' walks across the stage in June and embark on thing called life. Laura will be sincerely missed by all who had the pleasure of knowing her.

She leaves a strong legacy of love to: her mother, Barbara Dorrrough; her stepfather, Gene Dorrrough; her son and daughter, Ronald Ector, Jr. and Zhanaé Witherspoon; siblings, Stevie, Debbie and Richard (who preceded her in death); and a special friend, Jerome Witherspoon. She also leaves behind countless relatives, who will never forget the lady named Laura.

“ To the family of Laura Ann Liller:

Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy of all mankind, yet when it touches us personally, few seek the comfort they search for. The unscriptural doctrines that are taught concerning death do not leave those who are grieving with comfort or a hope. They do however, leave many with unanswered questions. The response that "God works in mysterious ways" or that "God needed another angel", does not satisfy the spiritual needs of those who are grieving. Nonetheless, many have found comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that the God of the Bible will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). Learning the truth about Jehovah, the God of the Bible (Psalm 83:18), God's Kingdom (Daniel 2:44), and the state of those who have died (Ecclesiastes 9:5), is the start to finding true comfort concerning loved ones who are sleeping in death (John 11:11-14; John 8:32). “ It is never easy finding comfort in the loss of someone we love, but know that our HEAVENLY FATHER feels our suffering. May you find comfort and hope in his promise of a release for our loss loved ones from the hold of DEATH. At John 5: 28,29 it says, "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out . . ." My deepest condolences to your family. May GOD'S words bring you peace of heart.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. May you find comfort in the scriptures at Revelation 21:4 "he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore."

Ms. Howard - March 11, 2013 at 09:41 AM

“ We the March Family and Staff wish to extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your loved one. Our prayers go out to you and your family in your time of loss. We know and understand that you have received many expressions of love and we will continue to lift you up in prayer. May the memories you cherish of brighter and happier days help to ease your sorrow and comfort you always.
