

Laura Mae Robinson

July 10, 1949 - February 15, 2018

Laura M. Robinson departed this life to be with her savior on Thursday, February 15, 2018 at St. Mary's Hospital in Henrico, VA. Laura was born in Morganton, NC on July 10th, 1949 to Joseph and Creola Wilson. Laura accepted Christ at an early age and always expressed her love for the Lord. She was educated in the Raleigh, and Richmond Public School systems. Laura was an avid cook and loved seeing her family and friends enjoy her delicious food. She shared her love of cooking as she had a longtime career as a Head Cook in long term care facilities. She retired from ManorCare on Hilliard Rd when illness fell upon her in 2008.

Laura married the previously departed Richard Robinson, Sr., and to this union came two children, Richard Jr., and Sharon Michelle. Laura loved her family and friends. She enjoyed music, dancing and was always the life of the party. To know her was to love her. She could be a firecracker at times, but she always welcomed you into her home.

Laura is preceded in death by her mother, Creola Wilson; father, Joseph Wilson; elder brother, William Henry, and a long time devoted friend, Roman Whitaker. She leaves to cherish her memory, her daughter; Sharon Robinson (Tyrone); her son, Richard Robinson, Jr. (Yovondalyn); her devoted companion, Alfonso Bennett; two brothers, Joseph Wilson (Clara) and Charles Wilson (Barbara); seven grandchildren, Lavonda Jackson (Jawann), Torie Robinson, TyShae Robinson, Tyree Robinson, Jamar Richardson (Cherell), Jabbar Richardson, and Kentrelle Robinson; eight great grandchildren,

Ty'wann, Yazmine, Jazeerah, Tyiland, Jamel, Jayden, Jemere, LaNyah and lifelong devoted friend, Gene Carroll, along with a host of uncles, aunts, nieces, nephews, cousins, and other devoted family and friends.
