

Laura Ann Rogers

March 5, 1918 - February 14, 2012

Laura Ann Rogers, born March 5, 1918, in South Boston, Virginia, was the daughter of the late Richard Gerst and Susie Bailey. She departed this life on February 14, 2012 after a lengthy illness.

Laura's life reflected God and family. On August 15, 1936, Laura, known affectionately as "Ninnie", was joined in Holy matrimony with her beloved spouse, help-mate and protector, the late Leroy A. Rogers. The union lasted three weeks short of fifty years, but even the departure from her husband's earthly vessel could not break the bond they shared. Out of this union, nine children were born.

Laura's belief in God was beyond measure. She joined Cornerstone Church of Christ in 1970, and remained a faithful servant until 1986 when she joined Bethel A.M.E. and remained a devoted disciple and an active member until she could no longer attend due to failing health. Prior to joining Cornerstone and Bethel, Laura was a dedicated member at Second Baptist Church. She became an affiliate of the Eastern Star, Chapter 14, in 1963. Her unwavering belief in God, her strong sense of commitment to the organization and her ability to provide nurturance to all earned her a lifetime appointment as Mother of the Chapter (17) in 1976.

She will especially be remembered as a humble soul who has made a tremendous impact through her infinite wisdom and abounding love.

Left to cherish her memory: six children, Daniel Rogers (Mary Jacobs), Bessie L. Burger-Rogers, Ginger E. Chester, Leroy A. Rogers Jr., Ann M. Thomas and Gerald A. Rogers; four grandchildren raised by Leroy and Laura, Larry T. Wilson, Shirley R. Erwin, Alisa C. Toles and Angela Simpson; twenty-three grandchildren; sixty-one great-grandchildren and forty great-great grandchildren; one son-in-law, James Thomas; two daughters-in-law, Patricia Rogers and Rosalyn Rogers; one brother, James M. Bailey; one sister-in-law; five nieces; two nephews; and a host of other relatives and friends.

Laura was preceded in death by her husband, Leroy A. Rogers; three children, Sally, Rosetta and Lareau; one brother, Theodore Bailey; one granddaughter, Alisa C. Toles; three grandsons, Rodney and Lionel Rogers and Lamonte Sherman; two sons-in-law, Charles H. Burger and Thomas M. Chester; and one daughter-in-law, Barbara A. Rogers.

“ When we lose a loved one it sometimes feels like an unreality, especially knowing that we can't share conversation with them any longer or see their beautiful smile. This sorrow was never God's purpose for us, because 1st John 4:8 tells us that "God is love". He hates death and views it as our worst enemy, and 1st Cor 15:26 promises: As the last enemy, death will be brought to nothing. Will we ever see them again? Yes we will, because God promises that one day the dead will hear the voice of the Son of God and they will come out of the memorial tombs. What a joyful day that will be. Meantime, throw your burdens upon Jehovah and he will sustain you. He will comfort you and help you to cope with your pain. I pray that your family will find peace in the days ahead.

“ May prayer and the reading of the Bible, God's Word, be a source of inner strength to know that there's a loving God watching over you, and that, throughout this time of need, He'll stay close by your side.(Isaiah 12:2; John 5:28,29)

“ I wish to express my condolences to the family. I know that your loss is great. May you find comfort from the God of all comfort who helps us to cope with our grief. It can be so hard to face each day without your loved one, but the love and support of family and friends and, of course, our loving Creator, can help to ease the pain and sorrow. Again, please accept my sincere condolences.

“ My deepest sympathy to the family. May the memories shared be a source of comfort. Please find comfort in knowing "the God of all comfort" promises to reunite as with our loved ones by means of the resurrection hope in the Bible at Acts 24:15.

“ My condolences to the Rogers Family,

During this time of great sorrow, may it comfort you to know that others are deeply touched by your loss. I too know the pain of losing someone dear. Even though our hearts are broken, rest assure that our Grand Creator cares about you personally (1 Peter 5:7) and can help you through this difficult time.

Revelation 21:4 says "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." Soon God will do away with death forever, there will be no more sorrow, heartache, or pain. I hope this brings you a measure of comfort during this painful time.
