

Laura R. Williams

November 15, 1931 - March 27, 2023

LAURA R. WILLIAMS, the second daughter of Julius and Mamie Dickens, was born in Edgecomb County, North Carolina November 15, 1937, and was raised in Rocky Mount, NC. She departed this life on March 27, 2023, at Northwest Hospital in Baltimore, MD.

Laura received her education through the Rocky Mount, North Carolina public school system. To her family and close friends, she was lovingly referred to as "Tinsy." She lived her early life in North Carolina then moved to Baltimore, Maryland where she met and married Curtis Williams in 1959. They were married for 22 years.

Laura always loved the Lord and joined Providence Baptist Church in Baltimore where she also served on the choir. Laura worked and retired from Maryland General Hospital where she worked in Food and Nutrition for 32 years. After retirement, Laura volunteered at the Ravenwood Nursing and Rehabilitation Center for over 2 years and donated to many local and national charities. Laura was a member of the Order of the Eastern Star. She loved to dress up and attend cabarets with her sister Mary Hendricks, cousin Mary Rathers, and spouses. Laura dedicated her life to the church, her family, and friends.

Laura was predeceased by her husband, Curtis Williams, and four siblings.

She is survived by her children, Donald Williams, Sonya Williams, and Curtis Williams.

In addition to her surviving children, Laura leaves to mourn, five grandchildren, six great-grandchildren; and a host of nieces, nephews, and other relatives
