

Lauren Marie Emlyn Ferguson

November 24, 1960 - May 10, 2017

Lauren Emlyn Ferguson, 56, of Baltimore, Maryland, received her heavenly wings on May 10, 2017 at 2:18 a.m. after a sudden hospitalization stay.

Emlyn was born November 24, 1960, in Basseterre, St. Kitts to Rose Ferguson and the late James Arlington Ferguson.

Emlyn, with her parents, grew up in Charlestown, Nevis and later Stoney Grove. During her early years at the Charlestown Girls' School, she was a "Brownie" (for girls 7–10 years) and was loved by everyone, especially the captain of the Brownies, Mrs. Olvis Dyer, who never stopped inquiring about her.

Emlyn completed her secondary education at Charlestown Secondary School. She excelled in playing the piano and pipe organ and often rendered assistance at church. She attended St. Paul's Church during her early years and later St. Johns Church in Nevis.

Upon migrating to Baltimore, Maryland, Emlyn worked several years as a secretary in the Payroll Department for

The State of Maryland. The highlight of Emlyn's week was the opportunity to worship at her home church, Open Bible Baptist Church in Baltimore. She also accompanied a church group to a nursing home on Sundays which she took as a pleasure.

Emlyn possessed a quiet, joyful personality. She always appeared happy with a sense of inner peace and contentment and always exhibiting a smile. She loved helping people in any way she could without requesting anything in return. Lauren, otherwise known as Emlyn by family and friends, attended the Caring Hands Adult Facility for a number of years. She was loved by everyone at the facility.

Lauren Emlyn Ferguson is survived by: her mother, Rose Ferguson; three brothers, Jerome, Swithun and Purcell; and a host of other relatives and friends.
