

Lavenia Williams

March 27, 1924 - January 23, 2012

LEVENIA GILL WILLIAMS, was born on March 27, 1924. She was the daughter of the late Lorenzo and Lilly Gill. God quietly ushered her into eternal rest on January 23, 2012. Sister as she was affectionately known to all, attended public school in North Carolina. At an early age Sister moved to Baltimore, Maryland and lived with relatives. Later she met and married Horace Williams on May 18, 1958. The “love of her life” preceded her death.

She loved the soap operas and especially ironing clothes for her favorite nieces. There was a special bond between she and great-nephew, Chris. Her greatest love was to give God the glory and the honor while she had breath in her body. She loved to listen to gospel songs on the radio and to hear God’s word. There was not a day that she did not take the time to tell God thank you for His great blessings and favor.

She attended Sweet Hope Baptist Church, then joined the Wayside Mission FBH Church, and continued her membership with Washington Temple FBH Church, Of God America where she was the “Mother” of the church and a faithful and devoted member.

She leaves to cherish her memory: two brothers, Louis Gill and Emmett Gill; one sister-in-law, Helen Gill; three nephews, Freddie Gill, Clarence Gill and Morris Lee; eleven nieces, Lillie, Ethel Mae, Emma Bell, Daisy, Hester, Roxanna Burns, Pamela, Beverly, Theresa, Evie and Vickie; nine great-nieces and ten great-nephews, three devoted friends, Helen Gill, Mother Louise Rodgers and Dorothy Hall; and a host of family and friends.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom 3yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”—ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
