

LaVerne Bond Moore

October 5, 1959 - April 3, 2018

LaVerne Bond Moore (Bernie), of Richmond, Virginia was born October 5, 1959, to the late Barbara Ann and Shurley Bond. She was also preceded in death by her brother Bryant Bond.

LaVerne graduated from Maggie L. Walker High School in 1978 and furthered her education at Old Dominion University and Norfolk State University. After college, she was thrilled to secure employment at LandAmerica in Richmond, Virginia, where she diligently worked for 20 years. Later, LaVerne worked for Richmond Public Schools with her "RPS family" and served there for more than five years. She was a God-fearing woman and she loved to serve the Lord.

LaVerne was affectionately known for her contagious smile and deep love for her children and grandchildren. She truly enjoyed music, as she was a member of the Mighty Green Dragons Marching Band. LaVerne's instrument of choice was the saxophone, and during fun times with family and friends, she loved to sing in her "Whitney Houston" and "Yolanda Adams" voice as she would say.

LaVerne leaves fond memories to her devoted children, daughter, Ashley Richardson (Elton Sr.) and son, Xavier Lee; grandchildren, Ashaun Moore and Elton (JuJu) Richardson, Jr. She also leaves to cherish her loving and supportive sister, Yvonne Walker (Bonnie); brothers, Shurley "Junie" Bond (Maritza), Ronald L. Bond, Sr.; her devoted companion, Carl Baugh; her caring nieces, Chelsea Bond, Chloe Jones, Caronda Bond, Jasmine Johnson, Bria Bond, Kameron Bond and Kanesa Bond; her nephews, Charles Bond, Ronald Bond Jr., Noah Bond, Imani Bond, Jermon Walker, Ezra Bond, Daquan Walker; devoted aunt Lolita Moses, and uncles Kenny Samuels, Sr. and Robert Evans. She also leaves to cherish her dedicated friends, Theresa Crawley, Sharon Hunter, and Valerie Taylor and a host of cousins and friends.

LaVerne was a classy and sophisticated woman who truly lived by the motto "family over everything." As a great conversationalist, she left a long-lasting impression with whomever she encountered. Through all times, she had a strong faith and an unwavering spirit which enabled her to fight the good fight of faith.

“ My deepest condolences to the family for this tremendous loss. May the words found at Isaiah 26:19 bring you comfort in knowing that you will one day see LaVerne again.

Isaiah 26:19 "Your dead will live. My corpses will rise up. Awake and shout joyfully, You residents in the dust! For your dew is as the dew of the morning, And the earth will let those powerless in death come to life"

“ Our friendship began with the kids at HS Youth Football. Then I saw you when you started working and City Hall. I remember reminiscing about the kids and how proud you were of your children. Your smile would radiate a room and your personality always upbeat. I will miss you my friend! Heaven is definitely receiving an Angel. I pray peace and comfort to your family during this time of bereavement.

*Blessings,

“ From the days at Maggie Walker High in Mr. Mayo's homeroom from 9th Grade through 12th. Remembering the smiles and the bubbly personality. Most recent outside of City Hall after work, we chatted, joke and laughed until either one of our buses arrived at the bus stop. Rest In Peace Girl ! May the Fond memories bring you strength during this most difficult time. Adrienne Stokes -Maggie L Walker Class of 78'
