

LaVerne Walker

July 12, 1954 - December 1, 2021

LaVerne Walker 67, affectionately known as "Bun", departed this life unexpectedly on December 1, 2021 at home.

LaVerne was a Correctional Officer and life long resident of Baltimore, MD. She was born July 12, 1954 to the late David Walker and Justiner Walker. She attended Edmondson Westside High School and completed one year of community college.

A well loved woman, who had the heart of gold she would give you her last. She was a devoted mother of five. LaVerne was an avid shopper and she loved to cook. She had a love for seafood, if you were in her presence just know you would eat good. She made an impact on the lives of everyone around her. She had a way with words and that's how she showed her love to you.

LaVerne leaves to cherish her sweet memory: her mother, Justiner Walker; her brother, David Walker Jr.; her sister Tina Walker; three daughters, Jaquay, Jade and Alexis Maxwell; two sons, Leon Walker and Rashid Maxwell; sixteen grandchildren, three nieces, three nephews, her work family at The Baltimore Central Booking and Intake Center a host of family and friends.
