

Lavette D. Taylor

August 31, 1965 - February 8, 2024

Lavette Doreen Taylor was born August 31, 1965 in Baltimore, Maryland to the late James Taylor and Marcelle Martin. She was called home on February 8, 2024.

Lavette was preceded in death by her father James Taylor, her sisters Laurel Taylor and Kimberly "Chevette" (Stephen) Taylor-Roney, and her longtime partner Edward Nolan.

Lavette was educated in Baltimore City and graduated from Mercy High School in 1984. After graduating high school she began working at the post office for several years. She always enjoyed helping and caring for others and soon recognized that her passion was in the healthcare field.

Lavette was a truly remarkable woman who touched the lives of many through her dedication, kindness and love for her family and friends. She loved her two beautiful children, Erin and Omar and her grandchildren Malia and Alayah and loved spending family time together with them. Lavette enjoyed being social. Her kids would often make fun of her for her amazing "gift of gab". She could walk into any room and would hold a great conversation with anyone who would listen. She held a very treasured bond with Mother and Daughter Serita Morgan and London Issac. Lavette enjoyed life and never wanted a moment of it lost! It was very important to her to capture the beautiful moments spent with family and friends on every occasion. She always made sure to get a picture before anyone left her presence. While her departure from this life is undoubtedly a loss, the memories of her 58 years of life will forever be cherished by her family and friends. Lavette D. Taylor's legacy will continue to bring comfort to all the lives she touched.
