

Lavionne Denise Haney

June 30, 1956 - January 3, 2002

Lavionne Denise Haney, (Lay Lay), daughter of Eleanor D. Grant and the late John D. Haney, was born on June 30, 1956 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on January 3, 2002. Lavionne attended public schools in Baltimore. She graduated from Walbrook High School and completed two years of college. At an early age, Lavionne was baptized at First Emanuel Baptist Church. In her quiet way, Lavionne did so much for so many people and never boasted nor asked for anything in return. She also was and advocate supporter of Bea Gaddy's Feed the Hungry Program and an active participant at the poles during election time. If those who knew Lavionne were asked what they remember most about her, some responses would probably be that she was a caring person, good-hearted, family oriented, devoted, reliable, dependable, unselfish, fun and a whole lot more. Lavionne was predeceased by one brother, George Johnson, Jr. She leaves to mourn: her mother, Eleanor D. Grant; one sister, Madeline Y. Tims; one niece, Valerie Johnson; one nephew and niece in-law, Pastor Zachery Tims, Jr. and Reba Tims of Ocobee, Florida; three great-nieces, April, Zoelle and Zahria; two great-nephews, Zachery III, and Zion, many aunts and uncles, and a host of other relatives and friends. In Remembrance of Lavionne "Imagine" Imagine a place where all around, Peace, Love and Joy abound. Imagine such a place, where all the land is Holy Ground. Imagine a world without sickness, death or care; Imagine a time when we will all be there, A place filled with the presence of the Lord, Who reigns and provides our care. Imagine when we are no longer deceived by the devil's ploy,when we will join our Beloved Lavionne,And live forever, full of Joy.Marvin
