

Lawrence Abel ('Dickie')

August 12, 1929 - January 27, 2005

Lawrence Abel, son of Hanna Abel, was born on August 12, 1929 in North Carolina. He departed this life on January 27, 2005 after a time of illness. He attended school in North Carolina, but at the early age of fourteen years, he came to live in Baltimore with his aunt. Lawrence married at an early age. From that union were born six children, three girls and three boys. Lawrence met and fell in love with Daphne and they were married August 12, 1989 by Pastor J. Luther Carroll. He gave his heart to the Lord fifteen years ago. Though he was not well, he tried to be in church. Lawrence worked for the Housing Authority of Baltimore City as a Supervisor. He enjoyed fishing, taking trips and reading history books. He also loved to sing. His favorite song was "His Grace And Mercy." He will be truly missed by his wife, children, grandchildren, other family members and friends.

“ TO: The Family of Lawrence Abel I would like to express my deepest sympathy to each of you. May the words of Christ Jesus be of comfort to you in which he promises that the day is soon to come in which all those in the memorial tombs (graves) will hear his voice and come out. (John 5:28,29) Revelation 21:3-5 gives us a very optimistic outlook for the future. For here our Creator assures us that he is going to wipe away the tears of sorrow from our eyes forever and death will be no more.##imported-begin##S'neta##imported-end##

“ Dear Abel Family: Please know that there is true comfort found in the Bible to help you cope with your loss. At John 5:28, 29, there is the promise that there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous. So Death will not keep gaining the victory over us forever. The Bible promises that Death will be destroyed forever (Revelation 21:4).##imported-begin##L Alston##imported-end##

“ Please accept my deepest sympathy for your loss. My grandmother was born the same year as Mr. Abel. I know its a hurtfull thing to see anyone you know die, especially those up in age;because its as if they been around forever and now their gone.I know it is very hard to lose someone, I've lost many friends and family. But the bible helped soothe my mourning,maybe these scriptures can serve as comforting words as well as they did for me. At John 5:28,29 it tells us:28 Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice....Acts 24:15 also mentions a resurrection notice it says:and I have hope toward God, which hope these [men] themselves also entertain, that there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous...so you see our God, Jehovah is going to make it so that there will be a paradise earth and the righteous will reside upon it (Psalms 37: 29). So may these scriptures help you to cope.##imported-begin##sorry2 hear##imported-end##

“ Dear Abel Family, I was sorry to read about the loss of your loved one Mr. Abel. The reason I am writing is because I wanted to offer you some comfort from the bible. This is in line with Isaiah chapter 61 verses 1 and 2, "The spirit of the Sovereign LORD Jehovah is upon me, for the reason that Jehovah has anointed me to tell good news to the meek ones. He has sent me to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to those taken captive and wide opening {of the eyes}even to the prisoners; to proclaim the year of goodwill on the part of Jehovah and day of vengeance on the part of our God; to comfort all the mourning ones." So in line with that I want to extend to you what God's word the Bible said at Revelation 21:4 "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." If you would like to learn more this Bible based hope and how you can see your loved one again you can contact me via e-mail. Sincerely

“ I would like to take this time to say I am very sorry for your lost. I would like to share some encouraging words with you. The bible book of ecclesiastes 9:5 tells us about the condition of the dead and that they are sleeping. John5:28 lets us know that Jehovah will resurrect those who are sleeping in death. Isn't it wonderful to know that Jehovah and Jesus loves us that much? They want us to live not for just a few years, but forever.###imported-begin###jehovah witness###imported-end###

“ The lost of a loved one has an overwhelming impact on all and especially the immediate family. The pain and suffering alone is very hard to bear and no one should ever have to experience such a dark and sad time in life. However it seems to be no escape no matter the cause. I extend my deepest sympathy and thoughts of encouragement from the one who can remove such pain and grieving sorrow from the human family, that one is the Almighty Jehovah God. Jehovah is saddened over how life has turned due to the course of actions of our first parents Adam and Eve. However, because Jehovah is a loving God he has promised the offspring's of Adam and Eve a way out. In the near future He said death will be no more and the things that causes death will be no more according to Rev 21:3-4. This promise of life has always been Jehovah God's purpose for mankind according to Titus 1:2. This is a promise he can't lie about. Hebrews 6: 18 states of Jehovah God, it is impossible for him to lie. That is an encouraging hope. Also for those who suffer with all sorts of illness Isaiah 33:24 says it will come a time no one on the earth will say they are sick and the lame will walk Isaiah 35:6, the blind will see, Isaiah 35:5 and the greatest promise of them all will be when Jesus Christ will call all those in the memorial tombs to come out. Yes our loved ones will be blessed with a resurrection to life right here on earth. John 5:28-29 Yes Jehovah will resurrect those back to life to enjoy everlasting life with all their families and friends Ps 37: 10 states the meek will inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Ps 37:29. It's truly understandable since our heavenly father created the earth for man to live according to Isaiah 45:18. We can truly trust in God's written word because nothing he says will not return without results Isaiah 55:11. So we can dry our eyes due to the tears of sadness but tears of joy will flow when we can once again enjoy the lives of our loved ones temporarily lost to death.##imported-begin##B

“ To the family of Mr. Abel I would like to express my deepest sympathy to you. Today, most people do not take the time out to show real love and brotherly affection to one's neighbors. How critical these times are. Today, I sending a spiritual message of love and comfort from God's Word at Acts 24:15 which says in part..."I have hoped toward God....., that there is going to be both a resurrection of both the righteous and unrighteous. Yes, because of Christ's ransom, Almighty God, Jehovah gives us the resurrection hope. May this encourage and comfort your family at this time.##imported-begin##Mrs. Howard##imported-end##

“ It truly saddens us to see death's ugly face. It hurts so bad because death is not natural, but we are given hope by Jehovah God, by means of his son christ Jesus, that we will be remembered and brought back to life again. Ps. 37:11 tells us that "the meek ones will live on the earth and they will indeed find their delight in the abundance of happiness." Revelation 21:3,4 adds that at this time "death, pain, mourning, and sorrow" will be a thing of the past. The family and friends have my deepest sympathy in your time of mourning. "Draw close to God and He will draw close to you" and provide the strength needed to make it through difficult times like this.##imported-begin##Lauren Coleman##imported-end##

“ Dear friends and family, I am so sorry to hear about the loss of your dear loved one. At times like this you may need some encouragement. I have found that the finest basis for encouragement comes from the Bible. A relationship with Almighty God Jehovah can help you to cope with the loss of someone that you love. Never underestimate the value of prayer. If talking out your feelings with a dear friend can help you to cope, how much more can pouring out your heart to the God of all comfort help you. Notice what the bible tells us at Psalms 55:22...Throw your burden upon Jehovah himself, and he himself will sustain you. Never will he allow the righteous to totter. And notice what Jesus said at John 5:28-29....Do not marvel at this because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life. I want to encourage you to read these scriptures in your copy of the bible. I hope that you can find some comfort from these scriptures. Take care.##imported-begin##Ava Norton##imported-end##

“ To the family of Mr. Abel. Please accept my deepest sympathy for the loss of your husband, father, grandfather and friend. No doubt things are very difficult at present and although I didn't know your loved one, I have experienced what it feels like when this enemy, death strikes. It's encouraging to read that Mr. Abel had a relationship with God. He gives us such a wonderful tool to use in comforting those who are mourning and that tool is the bible. Our loving Heavenly Father, Jehovah, knows our pain. He, too, lost His own son and best friend, Jesus. His pain was so great that the bible tells us that because of his pain, He caused a total darkness to fall upon the earth for 3 hours after Jesus' death. Because He loves us so much, He resurrected Jesus from the dead and promises to do the same for us. At John 5:28,29 it says, "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out..." How wonderful it would be to see your loved one again right here on earth. May we all continue to hold onto this hope and promise. My prayers are with your family.##imported-begin##Denise Dukes##imported-end##

“ I extend to you my deepest sympathy to the Abel family. The bible makes it clear that God did not originally intend for humans to die. Death is thus an absence of life. “ To the Abel Family, Please accept my condolences on the passing of your loved one, Mr. Lawrence Abel. At times like this when the tears won't stop flowing, look to Jehovah God, the God of all comfort. He invites us to turn to him in our times of need. 2 Corinthian 1:3,4 tells us that. Another such scripture is Isaiah 66:13 where it states "Like a man whom his own mother keeps comforting, so I myself shall keep comforting YOU people; and in the case of Jerusalem YOU will be comforted." Please find solace in these scriptures and others found in the Bible.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##
