

Lawrence Green

March 19, 1946 - April 25, 2009

Lawrence Green, son of the late Leroy and Edna Green, was born on March 19, 1946 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life on April 25, 2009 after an extremely lengthy illness. He received his education in the Baltimore City Public School System and was particularly proud of his participation on the basketball team at Dunbar Senior High School. On January 6, 1964, Lawrence Green enlisted in United States Army. Following his discharge from the Army he held several positions as a Draftsman with Western Electric, an Engineer with the Western Maryland Railroad, and as an Electrician with Maryland Dry Dock. He ultimately settled and found satisfaction working at the Social Security Administration (SSA). After leaving SSA, he decided to pursue his dream of becoming an addiction counselor and enrolled in Baltimore City Community College. On May 3, 1969, Lawrence married Ruth Gonsalves, the girl who stole his heart at the age of twelve when he saw her looking out the window of her family's home on Aisquith Street. During their 40-year union, they raised their five children. It is undisputed fact that Lawrence left a lasting impression on all the people he met in his travels and will certainly be sincerely missed by everyone who he befriended. We all can recall him saying at some point in his conversations with you; "Know the Rules", "It's not that heavy;" and "You are hard on a Poor East Baltimore Boy," Although a private individual, he was a true friend and a devoted and protective father and grandfather.

Tribute Wall

“ Lawrence Green

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ I would like to express my sincere condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. We all look forward to a time when Jehovah God will wipe out every tear from our eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore (Rev. 21:4). May you find solace in the God of all comfort (2Cor1:3-4) and he will sustain you during this difficult time (Psalm55:22).##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. Job 14:14,15 lovingly reveals: "If an able-bodied dies can he live again?... You will call, and I myself shall answer you..For the work of your hands you will have a yearning". May you receive much comfort and strength from this resurrection hope from Jehovah God and Jesus Christ.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ To the family, Please accept my condolences. May you find comfort from the resurrection hope. Jesus demonstrated this with Lazarus at John 11:38-44. These verses will help to strengthen you at this time.##imported-begin##Mrs. Howard##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM