

Lawrence L. McCoy

June 17, 1947 - May 18, 2003

Lawrence Lee McCoy, Sr., was born to the late Lester and Margaret McCoy on June 17, 1947. He departed this life on May 18, 2003. Lawrence attended the Baltimore City Public Schools. After high school he enlisted in the Armed Forces. When discharged from the service he became employed through Johns Hopkins Hospital for a few years before becoming self-employed. He enjoyed home improvement and repairing cars. During his life he was inspired to accept Jesus Christ as his Savior. Lawrence was known for his greasy hands, smart mouth and slanted hats, but we loved him dearly. He leaves to cherish his memory: his children, Shanae, Lil Lawrence, Kenith, and Shawn; ten loving grandchildren; one very loving friend, Lorraine Lawson; three brothers, Lester, Melvin and Michael; three sisters-in-law, Patsy, Caroline and Diane; one uncle, Buddy; two aunts, Ruth and Thelma; Elaine Barnes (wife); and a host of nieces, nephews, family and friends.
