

Lawrence A. Schaeffer

July 12, 1949 - August 21, 2022

Mr. Lawrence Allen Schaeffer was born to the late William and Rosemary Schaeffer on July 12, 1949, in Baltimore, Maryland. He was the 6th child of seven children.

Lawrence attended school in the Baltimore School System. He later attained his General Equivalency Diploma (GED).

Lawrence was a big, tall, handsome, strong, intelligent, charismatic, no-nonsense type of fellow who was loving, caring, and very family oriented. He loved his children very deeply.

Lawrence loved to listen to music like the Gap Band and the Whispers. He loved to eat good food and catch some of the local concerts when they came to town until his ailments began to slow him down. Lawrence also really enjoyed dressing very well. He enjoyed spending lots of quality time with his brother, Mr. Clarence Schaeffer, anyone that knew them knew they were ALWAYS together!

The Lord decided to call Mr. Lawrence Allen Schaeffer home on Sunday, August 21, 2022, at the Afternoon Tea Nursing Facility.

He leaves to mourn his passing: his three sons, Lawrence Allen Schaeffer, Jr.,

Terrence Allen Schaeffer, and Matthew Rivera; his siblings, brother, Clarence Schaeffer, and sister, Catherine Holmes; nieces, Morgana Watt (Harlem, New York), Denisha Holmes, Zendia Streeter, Cheryl Paige, Vera Gray, Deborah Fooks, and Donna Watt; nephews, Gregory Holmes, Wayne Watt, Jr., Michael Johnson, and Dionne Johnson; and a host of other nieces, nephews, loving family and friends.

WE WILL ALWAYS LOVE YOU UNCLE BILL!
ALWAYS AND FOREVER!
