

Lawrence Spearman

April 3, 1952 - January 21, 2009

LAWRENCE DENNIS SPEARMAN, son of the late Glenda Spearman Hall and the late Melvin Sylvester Wilson, and stepson to the late William C. Hall, was born on April 3, 1952 in Baltimore, Maryland. Blessed peace came to Lawrence on January 21, 2009 in the comfort of his home. Lawrence attended Baltimore City Public Schools, and graduated from Baltimore City College in 1970. After graduating from City, he began his career at Church Home and Hospital in the Department of Food Nutrition where he served for thirty years. After his tenure at Church, he joined the staff at Harbor Hospital and was employed there until he became ill. Known affectionately as Nicky to his family and friends (and he had many), he was a lifelong resident of East Baltimore, Nicky had no problems developing and maintaining friendships with his quick and easy smile and pleasant demeanor. With a zest for learning, Nicky loved to read, cook, create menus, listen to music, and engage anyone in an intelligent debate. Nicky also had a great love for his family. Nicky had no permanent affiliation with any church. His childhood was spent at Faith Baptist Church here in East Baltimore, At times, we could find him visiting other churches to seek comfort and give praise. A loving brother, uncle, and friend, Nicky will be missed by many. He leaves to cherish his memory: one son, Michael Spearman; three sisters, Linda and Arlene (Chickie) Spearman and Marcia Brown; one brother, Andre Wilson; seven aunts, Romaine Harden, Angela Jones, Norma Jennings, Audrey, Loretta, Mildred and Odessa Wilson; two uncles, Calvin Wilson and Howard Summerville; five nieces, Shanna

Spearman, Juanita Puryear, Pia Kroger, Lavonda Brown and Andrea Washington; one nephew, Courtney Green; three great-nieces, Morgan, Tynesha and leasha Brown; four great-nephews, Christopher and Brandon Spearman, Antoine and Stevie Brown; one great-great-niece, Tatianna Brown; one great-great-nephew, Jabari Brown; many loving cousins, a host of other relatives and friends.

“ I wish to extend my heartfelt condolences for the loss of Mr. Spearman. 1 Corinthians 15:26 lovingly reveals that our "enemy death" will be destroyed. Also, Acts 24:15 declares "there is going to be a resurrection" for our dead loved ones. May you receive much comfort and strength from these wonderful promises found in the Bible.##imported-begin##Mrs. Sharon Hill##imported-end##
