

Lawrence W. Maith

September 13, 1949 - February 8, 2002

Lawrence Wayne Maith, son of John Maith Jr. and Addie Maith Zapata, was born on September 13, 1949 in Baltimore, Maryland. “ Wayne, “ as he was affectionately called, was the second of five children. He departed this life after a short illness on February 8, 2002 at approximately 11:30 a.m. At an early age, he began his religious pilgrimage at Emmanuel Baptist Church in Overlea, Maryland. He spent most of his childhood with his cousins and friends throughout the Overlea, Cherry Hill and Barlett communities. Wayne received his education in the Baltimore City Public School System and graduated from Baltimore City College in 1967. He furthered his education at the Community College of Baltimore City, where he worked for more than fifteen years until the city abolished that department. Wayne was a loving son to Addie and John. His favorite pastimes included watching sports with “ Pop,” talking with his Momma and spending time with his brothers Jerry and Keith. He was always in good spirits and loved conversation, short and long. While attending the Community College of Baltimore, he met and fell in love with the late Jacqueline Thompson, the love of his life. They later married, and out of that union one daughter, Jawai Malika Maith, was born. Jawai will forever be their pride and joy. He leaves to mourn: a daughter, Jawai M. Maith; one grandson, Jaylen Lampkin; his mother and stepfather, Addie and Jorge Zapata; his father and stepmother, John and Edna Maith; one sister, Angela Holmes; two brothers, Jerry and Keith Maith; three stepsisters, Quinta, Cecelia and Darlene; two stepbrothers, David and Maurice; two half-sisters,

Kim of Cleveland, Ohio and Sandra of Germantown, Maryland; father-in-law and mother-in-law, John and Patricia Thompson; two brothers-in-law, Keith and Gregory Thompson; one sister-in-law, Karen Matthews; one god-sister, Louise Owens; six special aunts, Dottie Parker, Clara Wilson, Lillian Couplin, Odell Williams, Mary Featherstone and Dorothy Maith; three special uncles, Charlie Wilson, Purnell Maith, John Couplin; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
