

Lawrence Costello Williams Sr.

November 14, 1938 - February 16, 2014

Peacefully sleeping, resting, at last, the world's weary troubles and trials are past. In silence he suffered, in patience he bore, til God called him home to suffer no more. On February 16, 2014, God said "Lawrence it's time to come home." LAWRENCE C. WILLIAMS, son of the late George and Edna Williams, was born on November 14, 1938 in Hanover, Maryland. He was educated in the Anne Arundel County school system. He retired from Northrop Grumman in September 1997 after thirty years of service. He often said after he retired, all he wanted to do was sit on the porch and look at his truck and drink a cold one. He also had a passion for landscaping, playing baseball and bowling, for which he was on the Westing House bowling league and won several plaques and trophies for his services. He also enjoyed family get-togethers. He was united in marriage to Lois A. Savage for fifty years. This union was blessed with seven children: Deborah A., Lawrence C. Jr., (who preceded him) Leonard, Darlene, Pamela, (who also preceded him) Sharon D. and Sheena V. Williams whom he all loved in many different ways. He also leaves to mourn: five grandchildren, Tyrell J. Cary, Dante C. Simmons, Trei A. Franklin, Tyesha T. Williams, Tameka L. Williams; four great-grandchildren, Amaris N. Cary, Amari J. Cary, Za'Niya M. Simmons and Katlynn L.M. Simmons; one sister, Laverne Simms; one brother, Melvin Williams; three sisters-in-law, Arenthia Forster, Margaret Satchell and Mary Lewis; two brothers-in-law, Preston Savage and Marion Simms; and a host of nieces, nephews, many other relatives and friends.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. May "the God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) comfort and soothe your heart. His promises, found in the Holy Scriptures, can offer much hope. It assures us at John 5:28,29 that our loved ones will be remembered and brought back to life in the resurrection. Please allow God's Word to strengthen you and help you to endure this most difficult time.

“ On behalf of the Brooks family, Lorraine, Eric and Darlene we would like to give our deepest condolences to your family for the loss of our cousin Lawrence. It can be difficult to choose the right words of comfort to express the sadness we know you are feeling, however remember John 14:1, Do not let your hearts be troubled. Trust in God. Trust in me also. Our prayers are with you always family.

“ *To the family,
I am deeply sorry for the loss of your dear loved one. Death can be hard to cope with but fortunately we can draw comfort from the scriptures. One particular scripture is found at Isaiah 25:8 which says in part, "He (God) will swallow up death forever". One day soon, God will not only get rid of death, but He will also resurrect our dead loved ones. May this promise bring you comfort and peace during this time of need (2 Corinthians 1:3,4).*

“ We the March Family and Staff wish to extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your loved one. Our prayers go out to you and your family in your time of loss. We know and understand that you have received many expressions of love and we will continue to lift you up in prayer. May the memories you cherish of brighter and happier days help to ease your sorrow and comfort you always.
