

Leamon Smith

February 22, 1926 - May 21, 2014

The day of February 22, 1926 was a blessed day. On this day, God blessed William and Sallie Smith with their oldest boy of 5 children named Leamon Smith. He was reared in Smithfield, North Carolina. Leamon departed his life suddenly after a lengthy illness. On May 21, 2014, God called his son home to be with him.

Leamon loved gardening, he always had a garden in the Cherry Hill Community where he lived for almost 30 years.

He received his education in the Smithfield, North Carolina Public School System. After completion of his education he traveled to Baltimore, Maryland.

Leamon worked at Bethlehem Steel Shipyard, he loved that place. He then met and married the late Shirley Barnes and out of this union 4 children were born, Tammy, Sherry, Lynn and Corey Smith.

Leamon will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew him. He was a devoted family man.

Leamon leaves to mourn: his children, Sandra, Joyce, Jacqueline, Sharon, Vanessa, Lena, Tammy, Sherry, Marcus and Corey; 2 sisters, Ms. Neather Joyner and Ms. Williema Bland; 14 grandchildren; one very special son-in-law, Mr. Herbert L. Avent; and a host of nieces, nephews and other family members.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 5yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!

“ My sincere condolences to your family. Death of a loved one is never easy to deal with and our heavenly Father knows this very well. That is why he made this promise in his word the Holy Bible that very soon death will be swallowed up so that we will not experience that pain anymore. This is found your in Bible at Isaiah 25:8. His wonderful son, Jesus Christ not only promised that there will be a resurrection of those that died; (John 5:28, 29) but he also demonstrated it when he ressurected his dear friend Lazarus from death; (John Chapter 11).

I hope that during this difficult time these and other delightful promises from our heavenly Father bring some comfort to your family.

Condolences to the Smith Family at this very difficult time in life. Please keep your loved one in your memories until you see him again. That promise is at John 5:28-29. There will be a resurrection. That is a promise Jesus made. Our heavenly Father is a wonderful God.
