

Leamond Suggs

August 17, 1929 - June 22, 2007

LEAMOND L. SUGGS, son of the late Nora Murphy, was born on August 17, 1929, in Maury Green County, North Carolina. He departed this life on June 22, 2007, after a brief illness. He received his education in the public school system of North Carolina. He joined the United States Army in 1949 and was honorably discharged in 1952. He was employed for many years in the Dry Cleaning Industry. He was married to the late Reatha L. Daniel. He has one son, Leamond Jr. He leaves to mourn: his brother, Jessie Suggs of California; niece, Rhona E. Gray of Washington, D.C.; his son, Leamond Jr.; and a close and reliable friend, Carmen Tuitt.

Tribute Wall

“ Leamond Suggs

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ I am sorry to learn of the death of Leamond. I'm sure that this must have been a difficult time for all of you. I am forwarding scripture that will comfort you. Psalm 90:10 says that the usual human life span is 70 or 80 years. (compare Genesis 5:3-32.) Hebrews 9:27 says..It is reserved for men to die once for all time. This, too, was true when it was written. But not the case before God passed judgement on sinful Adam.##imported-begin##JT Nunnally##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Please accept my heartfelt condolences on the recent death of your loved one. Death is such a sorrowful thing to deal with, and is so unfair that we have to lose our loved ones in death. This was never God's original purpose for people to live a few short years and then die. The bible helps us to realize that, because in ancient times people lived for hundreds of years. Methusaleh, the oldest living man, died at 969 years old. One day soon people will not only live hundreds of years, but they will live for all eternity, because this is Jehovah God's purpose for obedient people to live everlastingly in peace and happiness with their loved ones. Romans 6,23 speaks of this when it says, "For the wages if sin is death, but the gift God gives is (everlasting life) by Christ Jesus our Lord. Those who have died will also receive this gift of everlasting life, because John 5:28,29 tells us, "Donot marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out to a ressurection of life." So one day Leamond will open his eyes once again in everlasting life by Christ Jesus, our Lord. Please find comfort in God's word, the bible, because all of his promises will come true. Isaiah 55,11.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM