

Leander Beamon

May 31, 1929 - February 1, 2021

Leander “Lee” Beamon, born May 31st, 1929, the son of the late Dred and Helen Dixon-Beamon, passed away peacefully on February 1st , 2021 at his home in Woodlawn, Maryland.

He received his early education from the Greene County, NC Public School System and attended St. Delight Missionary Baptist Church of Walstonburg, NC during his formative years.

He and his family moved to Maryland, where he was employed for 40 + years with The BEA Corporation of Annapolis, Maryland.

Later he attended Hope Memorial-St Mark United Methodist Church of Edgewater, MD under the leadership of Dr. Reverend Eddie Smith for more than 18 years. He faithfully served at least 16 years with the Methodist Men Choir and in other capacities as needed. He began to visit Ebenezer Outreach Ministries on Puget Street, here in Baltimore, MD, Pastored by his sister, the Late Pastor Geraldine Lee. In 2013, after her passing, he became a member of Ebenezer Outreach under the leadership of Pastor Patricia Rhodes. He was a faithful member and would often sing one of his favorite hymns, “There’s a Storm Out Over the Ocean.”

Leander was a hard worker and a businessman, who would give anyone who was willing to work hard like him the opportunity! He was always a giver, if he had it, it was yours! He enjoyed spending time with his family. Daddy being at the family's events was the icing on the cake! In his later years, he enjoyed exercising at planet fitness, playing bingo, and even joined a bowling club! He loved good cooking, some of his favorite foods being Fried Fish, Pig Feet, and Chicken Wings...and oh how he loved a good ole coconut pineapple cake!

He was preceded in death by his parents, Mr. Dred Beamon and Mrs. Helen Dixon Beamon; three sisters, Mary Alice Battle (A.J.), Earline Beamon Chestnut (Magellan), Pauline Beamon Ruffin, and Geraldine Mercer Lee; Four brothers, Albert "Jack" Mercer, Joseph "Joe" Mercer Jr., James "JB" Mercer, Edward "Eddie" Mercer; three Sons, Leon "Chuckie" Beamon, Willie Best, and Frankie Gilliam, and three daughters, Violena "Ree" Hudson, Dorothy "Dot" Beamon, and Shirley Lewis.

He leaves to cherish his memories, His wife, Mamie Beamon; Daughters, Brenda "Top" Dixon and Betty "Little Girl" Beamon, All of Baltimore, MD; Sister, Evelyn Beamon Dupree (Dave) of Walstonburg, NC; Three brothers, Jimmy Beamon (Lorraine) and Dred Beamon Jr. of Wilson NC and Samuel "Sam" Mercer of Baltimore, MD; one Brother-in-law, Roosevelt Ruffin of Kinley, NC; His Grandsons, Nathaniel Townes, Jamal McCaskill, and Derrell Gilliam; Granddaughters, Corliss "Londa" Townes, Erica Williams, Chandra Little (Rayner), Tyishia Freamon, Bernice "Precious" King, and Kendra Lewis; seven great granddaughters: Shalanda, Unique, Alise, Diona "Fassy", Ava, Tariah, and Azalea-Rayne "Boe"; seven great-grandsons, Louis Jr. "Lil Lou", Imani, Demontay, Rayner III "Tripp", Reid, Ma'khi, and Cory; a dear friend Deloris Collins, and a host of nieces, nephews, love ones, and friends.
