

Mr. Leander Flood

March 21, 1987 - August 6, 2022

Leander Brian Flood born to Earnest M. and the late Yvette M. Flood on March 21, 1987 in Long Island, New York. He was the youngest of two children. He received his spiritual blessings at a young age and accepted Jesus Christ as his Lord and Savior. Leander attended Tuckahoe Middle School in Henrico, Virginia and later transferred to North Babylon High School in Long Island, New York. Leander later received his General Educational Development (GED) Certificate. He was fondly known as “Rouiskii” by his family and friends. Leander worked various jobs from installing flooring, cooking and last had plans on being a tractor trailer driver. He was in school learning to drive tractor trailers. He had received his CDL Permit and was working on making that dream a reality. On the morning of August 6, 2022, Leander gained his wings to have eternal life. He had many cherished memories of his childhood and adulthood, but his real passion was cooking. He was a wonderful cook and could fill your belly full, leaving you to wanting more. Leander really adored and loved his children. They were an extension to his heartbeat. He enjoyed going to the river, jumping rocks, amusement parks, swimming, having picnics, going to the zoo and beach. He was a thrill seeker and very spontaneous. Leander loved spending time with family and friends. He loved to laugh, with a big Kool-Aid grin of a smile. Leander was someone that never made you feel left out or less than anyone around. He was a big hugger. Leander was someone that gave you unexplainable feeling of comfort and security. His conversations were like listening to a story. He was a wonderful loveable guy. Like he said, "Go Big or Go Home!"

He leaves to cherish his memories a wife, ReShemia S. Flood of ten years; three children, Nicholas B. Flood, Katilynn N. Flood and Leanette Y. Flood of Henrico, VA; one brother, Lance C. Flood, Sr. (Stephanie) of Long Island, NY; loving in-laws, Raul and Theresa Vasquez of Richmond, VA; a host of other relatives and caring friends.
