

Leander Kellam

February 11, 1927 - September 12, 2003

LEANDER KELLAM, son of the late Babel and Sussie Kellam was born on February 11, 1927 in Accomac, Virginia. Leander departed this life on September 12, 2003 at St. Agnes Hospital after a lengthy illness. Leander attended public schools in Accomac, Virginia. After coming to Baltimore, he became employed with The Baltimore Sun Newspaper. After 17 years with the Baltimore Sun, he relocated to Brooklyn, New York where he became employed with the New York Times until he retired in 1991. In July of 1963, he was united in Holy Matrimony to the former Fannie Williams. Leander was a loving husband, father, grand-father, uncle, brother and friend to many. One of his favorite past-times was hacking. He leaves to mourn: his wife of 40 years, Fannie Kellam; two children, Cora Edge of Brooklyn, New York and Richard Williams of Baltimore, Maryland; one sister, Annie Edwards of Accomac, Virginia; one brother, Dixie Kellam of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania; and a host of grandchildren, nieces, nephews, other relatives and many friends. He was preceded in death by one daughter, one granddaughter, and four brothers and sisters.

“ To the family: Sorry to hear about the loss of your dear loved one. Soon death will be a thing of the past. Our loved ones will be returned to us in good health. "From the hand of Sheol I shall redeem them; from death I shall recover them. Where are your stings, O Death? Where is your destructiveness, O Sheol?" We hope this comforts you in the days ahead.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son Jesus Christ have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future and our loved ones who have lost their life to our enemy death.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
