

Leann Jackson Hewlett

September 18, 1957 - September 26, 2022

Leann Jackson Hewlett was born on September 18, 1957, in Richmond, Virginia to the late Freddie Lee Jackson Sr. and Claudine Anna Christian. She was preceded in death by her brother Carlton Christian; two brothers-in-law, William Knight and Richard L. Jones Sr.

Leann received her formal education at Lee Davis High School in Henrico County, Virginia. She accepted Christ at a young age.

She formally worked for Manor Care Rehab Center as a Personal Care Assistant (PCA). In her leisure she enjoyed fishing, watching movies, and playing with her four-legged fur baby, Milo which she adored.

Leann was a kind and loving mother, sister, aunt, and friend. She always made us laugh even when she was not feeling well herself. She tried to see the good in everything and everybody. Leann could always be counted on to keep her word no matter what was going on in her life.

Leann loved fishing and she kept her supplies neatly organized so that she could be ready to go whenever she could. She was fun-loving and was very enjoyable to talk to. She loved giving gifts to her family and her friends and never forgot them on their birthdays or holidays. She was the life of the party and her life will be forever missed.

Leann is survived by one son, Sherard Jackson; devoted companion, Charles Ellis; three sisters, Lynette Christian Knight, Emma White and Margaret Jones; one brother, Freddie L. Jackson; three devoted nieces, Cherelle Christian, Tiana Jones and Teresa Jones; three devoted nephews, Demond Christian (Bee), Jonathan Jones and Richard L. Jones, Jr. and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
