

Leanna S Martin

November 9, 1924 - March 13, 2017

Leanna Marie Martin was born on November 9, 1924 in Howard County, Maryland to the late Douglas and Frances Snell. She departed this life peacefully on March 13, 2017, in the home of her children, surrounded by family and loved ones. Preceding her in death are; brothers Francis Snell, Arthur Rawlings, Calvin Snell, Charles Snell, Gerald Snell, Sherman Snell; and sisters Lillian Branford and Agnes Fields. Leanna, affectionately known as "Lee" was educated in the Howard County Public School system. Leanna married her husband, the late Thomas Wilson, and from this union, she had four children: Thomas Wilson, Anna Brooks, Allen Wilson, and Deloris Wilson. She moved her family to Westport community in Baltimore in 1957.

Leanna married Jessie Martin in 1987. They enjoyed many years together, traveling and sharing wonderful experiences. He preceded her in death in June 2000. At an early age, Leanna accepted Christ as her personal Savior as St Stephens A.M.E. Church in Howard County, Maryland. When she moved her family to Baltimore city in 1957, she joined Bethany Baptist Church then under the leadership of Rev. Clinton Johnson. She moved to the eastside of Baltimore in 1967. The Holy Spirit led her to New Creation Church. She loved this Church with all her heart and soul. She was, up until her passing, the Mother of the church and a prayer warrior for all. At 3 a.m. you could find Mother Martin on her knees praying for all.

Leanna was an exceptional cook and shared her culinary delights with all who crossed her door. She was famous for saying "Eat all you want, but you can't carry anything out". At Christmas time, she always delighted the kids in the family with her homemade eggnog.

Leanna Marie Martin leaves to cherish her memory: children- Thomas Wilson, Anna Brooks (Milton Brooks), Allen Wilson, Delores Wilson; a host of grandchildren, great, and great great grandchildren; brother Wilbert Snell; sister Annie Snell; nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

“ Spring, Summer and Fall, Ms Martin could be found sitting out on the porch. Every evening when I got home, we'd have a chance to talk for a spell. She'd tell me how pretty my flowers were (even if they'd been over-run by weeds), I'd learn who had visited earlier that day, and who was coming by later. She seemed perpetually content in life, and her bible was rarely away from her side. I looked forward to seeing her, and will miss her dearly.

“ Let it be known that I enjoyed my time with Aunt Lee. I thank her for never forgetting me after the break up of her first marriage. Just as she and her children, Rosie and her children all experienced the same hardship and became stronger for it. I salute you Aunt Lee for your strength and faith in God. To Tommy, Anna, Allen and Delores and all family members, I praise God for your thoughts and presence in my life. Respectfully Submitted, GARY AUGUSTUS WILSON.
