

Leanora C. Jackson

August 4, 1950 - December 19, 2013

LEANORA CONOLLY JACKSON, entered this this world on August 4, 1950 and departed this earthy life on Thursday December 19, 2013 in Atlanta, GA. She was born in Baltimore, Maryland to the late Williams Lambert Conolly and Macie Winston Conolly.

Her childhood years were spent in Sparrows Point, Md. Where she attended Union Baptist Church (Union Baptist Church relocated to Turners Station) under the leadership of Pastor Carlton Cooke and later under Pastor William Johnson. She also attended Sparrow Point High School and graduated in 1969. After graduation, she became employed at American National Can Company in Dundalk, Maryland until the company relocated to another state at which point she elected for early retirement. Also after graduating from school she married her high school sweetheart Richard L. Norman. The two were united in holy matrimony in 1970 at Union Baptist Church in Sparrows Point, Maryland. From this union, two children were born. Daughter Leanora Yvette Norman-Wade and a son Michael Lambert Norman. She then decided to attend Ron Thomas school of Cosmetologist and Barbering where she earned her license as a Cosmetologist in 1993. After receiving her cosmetologist license she married Rev. Melvin Jackson Sr., they united in holy matrimony at Calvary Baptist church in Baltimore, Maryland under Pastor Robinson in the year 2000. Shortly after relocating to Georgia, Leanora briefly became a business owner of a hair salon in McDonough, GA doing what she loved as a Cosmetologist. Soon after Leanora and Melvin settled in Georgia, they continued their evangelistic and missionary endeavors in such places as Africa and the Caribbean Islands, under Pastor Marvin Harris of New Life Baptist Church located in Decatur, Georgia.

In her free time she loved to travel through the Caribbean Islands and cruising the Hawaiian Island. She enjoyed cooking, entertaining and Bar-b-Que with her extended church family in Atlanta Georgia. Some of her specialties were southern style potato salad and baked goods such as cream cheese pound cake. Leanora also enjoyed creating floral arrangements that would light up any room. Also she never turned down a chance to play a competitive game of UNO with the people she loved.

Prior to her own earthly departure she was preceded in death, by one brother, Lambert Alfredo Conolly, Baltimore, Maryland.

“ The Rowlett/Miller families wish to extend heart-felt sympathy and prayers to the family of Leanora C. Jackson. Your hearts may be heavy now; but be comforted with this portion of scripture: "weeping may endure for a night, but joy comes in the morning". God will wipe away your tears, and heal your broken hearts.

Reginald F. Rowlett - December 27, 2013 at 10:04 PM

“ I would like to extend my deep and sincere sympathy to the family of Ms. Leanora C. Jackson. Jesus said at Acts 24:15 "There is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous". My prayers is with your family.

A. Verrett - December 25, 2013 at 02:01 PM

“ Our family would like to express condolences to your family. May you find comfort from Jehovah God's Word The Bible. He assures us at 1 Corinthians 15:26 that "the last enemy death will be brought to nothing". Our prayers are with your family.
