

Ledora Yates

February 9, 1933 - March 3, 2002

Ledora Yates, daughter of the late Vanis and Flossie Parker, was born on February 9, 1933 in Gates County, North Carolina. She departed this life on March 3, 2002 at 4:10 a.m. after a lengthy illness. She received her education at Rooks Hill School in Gates, North Carolina. She became a member of the Stoney Branch Baptist Church in Gates, North Carolina at an early age. She married the late John Edward Yates on February 10, 1956. From this union, one child was born, Douglas. Although it is sad for us to lose her, there is always comfort in remembering the times she made us laugh with her unusual humor. Her favorite way to show her love and affection for her family and friends was through her cooking. She enjoyed being in the midst of a family gathering, playing the role of the master chef. Creative fashions was another love of hers. The Sewing Club would convene at her home or one of her sisters. The three (affectionately called by her son, Douglas; Mo, Larry, and Curly) would create their masterpieces and parade around for all to see. Memories such as these will never fade with time, but will grow stronger and richer throughout the years. She leaves to cherish her precious memory: a devoted son, Douglas Parker; one daughter-in-law, Sadie Parker of Edgewood, Maryland; one grandson, Darren Parker of Richmond, Virginia; one granddaughter, Shauna Parker ; one great-grandson, Dion Parker; one sister, Joyce P. Smith; two stepchildren, Doretha Odom and Donnell Porter; a large host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
