

Lee A. Tarver

March 7, 1962 - January 6, 2007

LEE ANDREW TARVER, JR. began his journey in life on March 7, 1962 at Sinai Hospital in Baltimore, Maryland. The son of Yvonne Walker and Lee Andrew Tarver, Sr. of Baltimore, Maryland, Lee was called by his Heavenly Father on January 6, 2007. He attended Baltimore City public schools and grew up in the Rosemont community. As a child he was intelligent, creative and most of all Lee was a true friend to his friends. Lee loved to see new things being built as a child and he understood what it took to do that project at an early age. He continued his education at Harbor City High School where he mastered his trade of home improvement. Lee was a young professional who enjoyed his work with a passion. Everything Lee Tarver built was perfect and he was proud of his work. He spent countless hours renovating and creating new things to please his customers. He held several positions in his craft and always took pride in a job well done. He often reflected on the importance of family and promised that he would always take care of them. Lee was a family man. He loved spending time with his uncles and cousins. The special love of Lee was his son, Lee Andrew Tarver, III. In spite of everything, his love for his son is what gave him strength and motivation to work hard and be an example of love for his son. He married his life-long friend and childhood sweetheart, Delores Wilson on August 11, 2006. Delores was Lee's pride and joy. Lee loved his new wife to no end. She was the first thing he talked about and the last. He was so proud when they were married he just smiled and thanked God for his prize, his new wife. Lee and Delores shared an extraordinary bond of trust and dedication towards each other. They recaptured and shared a true love and he kept her close to his heart. They were really "soul mates." Lee leaves to honor and celebrate the memory of his life: his loving wife, "Loresy;" his mother, Ms. Yvonne Walker; his dad, Lee Andrew Tarver, Sr.; his brother, Michael Brown; his loving son, Lee Andrew Tarver, III; and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ Dear Family, We wish to express our condolences for the loss of your loved one. During this time of bereavement it is helpful to focus on the loving hope found in the Bible. John 5:28,29- "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out".. May you receive much comfort and strength from this loving promise in the days ahead.##imported-begin##Joseph & Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ To the family and friends: Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. God's original purpose was not for us to ever die. The thought of death is heartwrenching to us and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to death. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Just imagine our loved one coming back to life in the most beautiful earthly paradise you could ever imagine! Wouldn't it be wonderful to greet them, tears of joy running down your faces and knowing that you will never lose them in death again. Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at (Rev. 21: 3-5) of a new earth where there will be no more death. These promises have brought comfort to millions. I wish the same for you.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ I am very sorry to learn of the death of Lee. This must have been a difficult time for all of you. I'm forwarding scripture that will comfort you. Psalm 90:10 says that the usual human life span is 70 or 80 years. This was true when Moses wrote it but not so from the beginning. (compare Genesis 5:3-32.) Hebrews 9:27 says..It is reserved for men to die once for all time. This, too, was true when it was written, but not the case before God passed judgment on sinful Adam.##imported-begin##JT Nunnally##imported-end##
