“ We will always remember our neighbor outside cutting grass, decorating the house for the holidays, or just out sharing a laugh with all of us.

Always very thoughtful and kind....Always bringing Gizmo the good dog food whenever he came across it....Lee was just an All Around Good Guy...

We pray that God will comfort and strengthen his mother, sister, brother, nephews and neices (as well as all other family members and friends). We ask and pray that God will overflow your hearts with joyful memories and pray that the love you shared will make your hearts smile and bring you all Peace. Rest In Paradise Lee
