

Lee Tyler Hurt

November 15, 1923 - December 24, 2004

Lee Tyler Hurt, son of the late Charlie and Pinky Hurt, was born on November 15, 1923 in Greenbay, Virginia. As the sun rose in the early morning hours of December 24, 2004 Lee quietly slipped away to his eternal rest. Raised in East Baltimore, he received his education through the Baltimore City Public School System where he received his high school diploma. After completing high school he joined the United States Army where he served overseas. He married Peggy Harris on March 15, 1958. He went to work for Bethlehem Steel Corporation where he worked for several years before going to work at Western Electric. After retiring he worked as a driver for the Lucky Democratic Club. Lee always loved to laugh and joke. He was affectionately called "Deadpan" by all of his friends due to his unique sense of humor. After he would tell you a funny story he would ask "What you laughing at" or "Are you laughing at me" to which you reply "No I'm laughing with you". He loved to be around family and friends, they were truly the heartbeat of his soul. He leaves to mourn: sister, Beulah Hopkins; his former wife and friend, Peggy Hurt; four siblings that preceded him in death; sister, DeRosette Hodges; three brothers, George, Wendell, and Cledith Hurt; and a host of relatives and friends.

Tribute Wall

“ Lee Tyler Hurt

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM