May 23, 1941 - December 16, 2013

Our beloved Lelia Irene Brown, 72 years old, passed away on Monday, December 16, 2013 in McDonough, Georgia. She was born in Richmond, Virginia on May 23, 1941 to the late Sarah and Junuis Brown. Lelia cared deeply for her family, friends and all of her loved ones. She was the light of her family and was a true reflection of God's love. Lelia was always willing to listen, encourage, and help others in need.

She leaves to cherish her memory a loving and devoted daughter, Joyce M. Jackson; two grandchildren, William A. Jackson and Katrina M. Jackson; five sisters, Sarah E. Samuels, Katie L. Peyton, Mary M. Jordan, Mattie S. Taylor, Laura A. Brown; three brothers, James W. Brown (Carleen), John F. Brown (Joyce), and Jack P. Brown; and a host of other relatives and friends.

There Is a Path

There is a path we each must trod upon the road of life, that leads us to our destiny of happiness and strife. Some seek the road less traveled or blaze a brand-new trail, while others seek a common road, afraid that they will fail. Some linger at the crossroads, unable to decide. They truly fear the “great unknown” because they have no guide. There is a path we each must choose, a cross we each must bear, but no one has to walk alone because our God is there! His word is a light unto our path, a beacon in the night. He guides us through the storms of life and leads us to the light.
