

Lelia M. Davis

September 13, 1917 - December 18, 2004

Evangelist Lelia M. Davis, daughter of the late John and Channie Davis, was born in Meherrin, Virginia, on September 13, 1917. She went home to be with the Lord on December 18, 2004 after a long illness. She graduated from Stratton High School in Beckley, West Virginia prior to entering the work force in Baltimore, Maryland. She was very generous in helping meet the needs of her family. She married twice after she returned to West Virginia and both husbands preceded her in death. Evangelist Davis received Christ at an early age and lived an exemplary life of loving and nurturing others. Family and friends were recipients of her warm, loving and generous nature. She enjoying sewing and cooking, but the true love of her life was ministering the word of God. Her ministry expanded over five decades (50 years). She was assistant pastor of the St. John. United Holiness Church in Beckley, West Virginia, prior to her last move to Baltimore. She was a prayer warrior and enjoyed Bible study and senior citizen group. She was affectionately referred to as "Nanna" by her grandchildren, other children and some friends. She loved and enjoyed teaching children and taking them to church. She became a member of the Mt. Olive Baptist Church in Richmond, Virginia, when the family relocated there several years ago. Reverend Darrel Husband is pastor of her church. She leaves to mourn: her daughter, Katie Long; son-in-law, Nathan Long of Richmond, Virginia; grandchildren, Ashley, Malcolm, Breana, Brooke and Bianca; sisters, Georgia Wells of Burkesville, Virginia, Rose McCormick, Virene Tinsley, Oacie Davis and Alice J. Burrow; brothers, John and Thomas Davis; a very special granddaughter, Shendrea Lewis-Faulks (Christor Faulks) of Richmond, Virginia; grandson, Bryant Stevenson (Tomeka Stephenson) of Richmond, Virginia; and a host of nephews, nieces, and friends.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ To the Family: Please accept my condolences. In difficult time such as this, it is comforting to know that Jehovah assures us that he ... "will swallow up death forever...and those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out.." May you all draw comfort and strength from these scriptures. Isaiah 25:8 and John 5:28,29.###imported-begin###Vanessa Adams###imported-end##
