“ To the family of Lemell, I am so very sorry that you lost your dear loved one . The death of a loved one is so truly heartbreaking, and especially when one is so young. I know how hard it is to cope with, because I lost my son at a young ge too, It is the most painful thing to go through. I"m comforted by the wonderful hope of the ressurection, which will restore life back to those we love and lose in death. Notice what John 5:26-28 says about this hope: Jesus said: "For just as the father has life in himself, so he has granted also to the Son to have life in himself. "And he has given him authority to do judging, because Son of man he is. "Donot marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which al those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a ressurection of life.' I hope this scripture brings your family much comfort as it has done mine, And I hope I hope that your precious memories of Lemell comfort you as well.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ To The Family, I want to express my deepest sympathy for your loss. I also want to share the comfort of John 5:28,29 which assures us of the hope that those who have fallen asleep in death will receive a "resurrection" back to life. Life on an earth restored to a beautiful paradise. Psalms 37:11 says, "The meek ones themselves will possess the earth, and they will indeed find their exquisite delight in the abundance of peace." While we await that wonderful time please find comfort in these promises.##imported-begin##Mrs. Jordan##imported-end##

“ To The Family and Friends of Lemell: I am so sorry for your loss. It's always tragic to lose one we love, especially one so young. But, the Bible does provide us with a great and comforting hope. Acts 24:15 lets us know "that there is going to be a resurrection". We will have the chance to be reunited with our loved ones on this earth in a peaceful, new world, unitedly serving our God, Jehovah. May this hope bring you comfort.##imported-begin##Kendra A.##imported-end##

“ To the family. I would like to send my deepest condolences for the loss of you loved one. At a difficult time like this the feelings of pain and sorrow may seem unbearable. But there is someone who gives comfort, even in what may seem to be our darkest hour. At 2 Corinthians the first chapter, verses 3 and 4, Jehovah God is described as being "the God of all comfort, who comforts us in our tribulation." So at all times including times like this, we can find comfort in him. His word tells us of a time when mourning and death will be no more. (Revelation 21:4) What a wonderful time to look forward to. May you draw comfort and hope from the God that assures us, "Do not be afraid. I myself will really help you." (Isaiah 41:13)##imported-begin##Sausha S.##imported-end##
