

Lemuel Vaughn 'Noonie'

June 25, 1958 - April 24, 2005

Lemuel Vaughan, son of the late Irvin Vaughan and the late Jessie Mitchell, was born in Baltimore, Maryland on June 25, 1958 and departed this life on April 24, 2005 at 7:34 p.m. after a lengthy illness. Lemuel, affectionately known as "Nooney," attended the family church in Jessup, Maryland and received his early education in Howard County and Baltimore City public schools. In the early 1980's Nooney moved to Norfolk, Virginia and worked at the Shipyard for many years. A man who was multi-talented with skills in plumbing, roofing, landscaping, just to name a few, he was knowledgeable in many areas, "a jack of all trades." It was in Norfolk that God blessed and he met his devoted life long love and friend, Linder Coles, who stayed by his side until the very end. Lemuel accepted Christ in his life shortly after his illness, knowing that God has the key to heaven and the only way to get in is through His Son Jesus Christ. Nooney was a man who loved his family and touched numerous people's lives wherever he went and will be sincerely missed by all who knew him. He was preceded in death by a sister, Dytanion Mitchell. He leaves to celebrate his life and memory: the love of his life, Linder Coles; five sisters, Carolyn Ward, Patricia Joyner, Gladys Hall, Lillian Crocker and Jeanette Graham; four brothers, Mack I. Vaughan, Ivory Vaughan, Jessie Vaughan and Curtis Grey; three adopted children, Maurio, Clarence and Vanessa; adopted grandchildren and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ To The Family of Leuel Vaughn Noonie: Death is such a sorrowful event, but in God's word we find a hope for our dead loved ones. This passage is found at John 5: 28-29, and it states: "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life, those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgment." Isn't this a comforting thought. In the near future, we may all see our dear loved ones again. With sympathy.##imported-begin##Von Holley##imported-end##

“ To the family of Mr. Vaughn, Please accept my condolences on the passing of Mr. Vaughn. At a time like this comfort is needed to cope with the loss. This comfort can be found in God's word the Bible. The scripture at John 5:28,29 speaks of a time when those in the memorial tombs (grave) will hear Jesus' voice and come out. Oh how we look forward to that time when we will see our loved ones again. Please let this scripture comfort you in your time of need.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ To Family of Lemuel, I am sorry to learn of your loss, please accept my sincere condolences. May you find comfort in close friends. The Bible is helpful. At John 5:28,29, It states, "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out,...." Yes, Jesus is going to bring back to life all those in God's memory. I hope that these words help you today.##imported-begin##Julia Brown##imported-end##
