

Lena Mae Bryant

March 28, 1936 - March 3, 2016

LENA MAE BRYANT, daughter of the late Henrietta Williams Frazier & Clarence Frazier, was born on March 28, 1936 in Martin County, NC. She was united in Holy Matrimony to Alphonse Bryant who preceded her in death. To this union seven children were born.

She received her education in the Public Schools in North Carolina. She was employed many years for Baltimore City Hospital currently Bayview Medical Center where she was known by many as “momma,” and retired in 1998.

At an early age she confessed Christ as her personal Savior, and has served him well throughout her time. She joined Fountain Baptist Church over 50 years ago, and remained a loyal and dedicated member until her health prevented her from doing so.

Lena M. Bryant was a unique, kind and beautiful woman, a dedicated wife, hard worker, a good friend, a wonderful mom to all and a very special grandmother. She touched everyone's lives in a special way, she had many friends, and everyone's lives in a special way, she had many friends, and everyone who knew her, loved her, and can agree she was a wonderful cook.

Lena M. Bryant became ill and stayed several week in the hospital. On March 3, 2016, after the setting of the sun, only a few weeks before her 80th birthday, the Angel of Mercy summoned on the Lord and entered The Johns Hopkins Hospital and whispered, "It's time to come home". She answered her calling peacefully.

She leaves to mourn: four sons, Louis Bryant, Rudy Bryant, James Bryant and Aaron Bryant; one adopted son Calvin Jennings; three daughters, Lynnise Briddell, Delores Coleman and Annette Bryant; two brothers, William Martin of Lancaster, CA and Robert William of New York, NY; four sisters, Odessa Thelma Williams of Pleasant Hill NC, Yvonne Price Pleasant Hill, NC, Carrie Garris, Roanoke Rapids, NC and Hazel Ford of Halifax, NC; one sister-in-law, Everline Thomas; a dear friend, Maggie Smith of Washington, NC, Two daughter-in-laws, Martha Bryant and Evon Bryant; two son-in-laws; Ricky McNeil and Ricky Coleman; twenty-one grandchildren, twenty great-grandchildren; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
